

of February next from the date of the appointment of the Dean as aforesaid; and that whenever a vacancy in the said deanery shall happen on any other day than the first day of February or the first day of August, the then next half-yearly payment shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the Dean causing the vacancy, or his representatives, and the Dean succeeding to the deanery so becoming vacant.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, until a permanent house of residence shall be provided for the Dean of Llandaff, there shall also be paid by us to such Dean, for the time being, in like manner and by like half-yearly payments, and subject to the like apportionment, the further annual sum of seventy pounds; provided always, and we further recommend and propose, that the Dean of the said church shall not at any time receive any other emoluments as such Dean, or as Head of such Chapter, out of the revenues of the said church; but that the Treasurer, or other proper officer for the time being of the said church, shall, from time to time, pay over to us all profits and emoluments, whether consisting of, or arising from, rents, fines, compositions, dividends, stipends, or otherwise howsoever to which the said Dean of Llandaff, for the time being, as such Dean, or as the Head of the Chapter of Llandaff, or to which any Archdeacon of Llandaff, not being also Dean, would have been entitled if this provision had not been made.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures touching the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the above recited Acts, or any of them.”

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given, and no objection has been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Llandaff.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 31st day of January 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for carrying into effect the reports of “ the Commissioners appointed to consider the “ state of the Established Church in England and “ Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties “ and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal “ dioceses, revenues, and patronage;” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with “ certain modifications, the fourth report of the “ Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and “ Revenues;” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for carrying into “ effect the reports of the Commissioners ap- “ pointed to consider the state of the Established “ Church in England and Wales, with reference “ to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as “ they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and “ patronage;” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act “ to carry into effect, with certain modifications, “ the fourth report of the Commissioners of “ Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for founding a new archdeaconry of Monmouth, in the diocese of Llandaff, and for providing a temporary endowment for the said archdeaconry, and also for the archdeaconry of Llandaff.

“ Whereas, by the first-recited Act, power is given to place the whole county of Monmouth, in the diocese of Llandaff (subject to such modifications as shall be deemed necessary), and to found a new archdeaconry in the said diocese, to be called the archdeaconry of Monmouth, and to vest the patronage of such archdeaconry in the bishop of the diocese, and newly to arrange the limits of deaneries and archdeaconries, so that every parish and extra-parochial place may be within a deanry, and every deanry within an archdeaconry; and it is by the same Act enacted, that all archdeacons throughout England and Wales shall have and exercise full and equal jurisdiction within their respective archdeaconries, any usage to the contrary notwithstanding; and it is by the same Act provided, that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the avoidance of the see of such bishop, without his consent :
