WHEREAS His late Majesty King William the Fourth did, by his letters patent, bearing date the 29th day of September, in the first year of his reign, give and grant (for the term therein mentioned) unto me, the undersigned, Charles Derosne, therein described, of Leicester-square, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, but now of No. 7, Rue des Batailles, Chaillot, near Paris, in the kingdom of France, the sole right to make, use, exercise, and vend, within England, Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and also in all His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, the invention of "certain improvements in extracting sugar or syrup from cane-juice and other substances containing sugar, and in refining sugar and syrups;" and whereas I, the said Charles Derosne, by virtue of the Statute in that case made and provided, duly entered with the Clerk of the Patents in England, and, on the 16th day of August 1836, duly enrolled in Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery, a disclaimer and memorandum of alterations, and thereby (among other things) desired that, instead of the title of the said patent being for the invention of "certain improvements in extracting sugar or syrups from cane-juice and other substances containing sugar, and in refining sugar and syrups," the following words be substituted in lieu thereof, videlicet, the invention of "a certain improvement, or certain improvements, to be used in the course of the process of extracting sugar or syrup from cane-juice and other substances containing sugar, and also to be used in the course of the process of refining sugar and syrup, for the purpose, in either case, of removing the colour from or whitening and purifying such sugars or syrups respectively;" now, I, the said Charles Derosne, do hereby give notice, that I intend forthwith to apply to Her Majesty in Council, for a prolongation for the further term of seven years, or such other term, not exceeding seven years, as Her Majesty shall please, of the term of sole using, making, and vending the aforesaid invention, within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and also in all Her Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad; and I, the said Charles Derosne, hereby give further notice, that I intend to apply, on the 18th day of March next, to the Right Honourable the Lords comprising the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Honourable Privy Council for a time to be fixed for hearing the matters of the said petition for such prolongation of the said term as hereinbefore mentioned; and all persons, desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, are hereby required to enter caveats at the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 18th day of March next.

Charles Derosne, per procuracy,

Thomas Graham, 1, Mitre-court-chambers, Temple, London, his Attorney and Agent.

In the Matter of Letters Patent, granted to Matthew Towgood, of Dartford, in the county of Kent, Paper Maker, and Leapidge Smith, of Paternoster-row, in the city of London, Stationer, for "An Improved mode of applying Size to Paper," bearing date at Westminster, the 18th day of August 1830:

NOTICE is hereby given, that, under and by virtue of an Act, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions," application will be made to Her Majesty in Council, praying Her Majesty to grant a prolongation of the term of sole using and vending the above-mentioned invention; and notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made, on the 21st day of March next, to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, to fix an early day for the hearing of the matters contained in the said petition, on or before which day all persons, desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, are required to enter a caveat at the Privy Council-office.—Dated this 12th day of February, A. D. 1844.
