NOTICE TO MARINERS.
ISLE OF MAY LEADING LIGHT.

Edinburgh, March 11, 1844.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give notice, that, in connection with the present light on the isle of May, a lighthouse has been erected as a guide for the North Carr Rock, and that the light thereof will be exhibited on the night of the 15th April, and every night thereafter, from sun-set till sun-rise.

The following is a Specification of the Appearance of the Leading Light, and the Position of the Lighthouse, by Mr. Alan Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

“The leading light is fixed, and of the natural appearance, and is placed on a tower about 130 feet below the level of the present light, and to the N. E. by N. of it. The lights will be seen distinctly separate, the one above the other; and when in one line, they bear S. W. by S. $\frac{1}{4}$ S., and N. E. by N. $\frac{1}{4}$ N., and lead about half a mile to the eastward of the North Carr Rock. The lights must on no account be opened to the westward.”

And the Commissioners hereby further give notice, that, by virtue of a Warrant from the Queen in Council, of date the 4th March 1844, the following tolls will be levied in respect of this Light, and of the Beacon on the North Carr Rock, viz.

1. On all vessels which shall pass to or from the westward of a line drawn from Buttonness, in the county of Forfar, to Fifeness, in the county of Fife:
2. On all vessels to or from the northward, which shall pass to or from the westward of a line drawn from Fifeness to Whitberryness, in the county of Haddington:

For vessels in the coasting trade, being under 100 tons, 2d. per vessel.

For vessels in the coasting trade, 100 and under 200 tons, 4d. per vessel.

For vessels in the coasting trade, 200 tons and upwards, 6d. per vessel.

For British vessels bound to or from ports beyond the seas, and for foreign vessels privileged under treaties between Her Majesty and the States to which they belong, bound to or from foreign ports, navigating as aforesaid, twopence, in addition to the above specified rates respectively.

For foreign vessels not so privileged, double the respective rates payable by foreign privileged vessels.

Provided always, that the said tolls should be payable once only for the whole voyage, although in such passage the vessels shall cross both the lines above mentioned.

By order of the Board,

C. Cunningham, Alex. Cunningham,
 Joint Secretaries.

Union Plate Glass Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to Her Majesty in Council, to grant unto the above-mentioned Company, under the authority of the Act of the 1st year of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 73, letters patent, enabling them to sue and be sued in the name of one of two officers for the time being of the said Company, to be appointed pursuant to the said Act.

Edmund Taverner, 9, New Broad-street,
 Solicitor, in London, for the above
 Company.
