After our hearty Commendations:

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, by any order under their hands, to declare that a certificate of production, shall be required upon the importation of any goods whatever from the British possessions abroad, and other places; and to frame such regulations respecting such certificates as they may think fit; and if any goods, in respect of which such certificates shall have been so required, shall be imported into the United Kingdom without such certificate, the same shall be deemed and taken to be of foreign growth, production, or manufacture:

And whereas we, being three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the authority vested in us by the said Act, do hereby order, that a certificate of production should be required upon the importation of tin into the United Kingdom, as the produce of, and imported from, the British possessions in India; and that the issuing of such certificate, and the production thereof in the United Kingdom, shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as certificates for sugar, the produce of places within the limits of the East India Company's charter are subject and liable to, under the third and fourth of William Fourth, cap. 59, sect. 83, and the third and fourth of William, Fourth, cap. 52, sect. 38.:

These are to authorize you to require a certificate of production for all tin imported into the United Kingdom from the British possessions in India, from and after the 1st day of January 1845, in conformity to this order—for which this shall be your warrant.

Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, this 2d day of March 1844.

ALEXANDER PRINGLE.
HENRY BARING.
J. MILNES GASKELL.

To the Commissioners for managing
Her Majesty's Revenue of Customs.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. ISLE OF MAY LEADING LIGHT.

Edinburgh, March 11, 1844.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give notice, that, in connection with the present light on the isle of May, a lighthouse has been erected as a guide for the North Carr Rock, and that the light thereof will be exhibited on the night of the 15th April, and every night thereafter, from sun-set till sun-rise.

The following is a Specification of the Appearance of the Leading Light, and the Position of the Lighthouse, by Mr. Alan Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

"The leading light is fixed, and of the natural appearance, and is placed on a tower about 130 feet below the level of the present light, and to the N. E. by N. of it. The lights will be seen distinctly separate, the one above the other; and when in one line, they bear S. W. by S. $\frac{1}{4}$ S., and N. E. by N. $\frac{1}{4}$ N., and lead about half a mile to the eastward of the North Carr Rock. The lights must on no account be opened to the westward."

And the Commissioners hereby further give notice, that, by virtue of a Warrant from the Queen in Council, of date the 4th March 1844, the following tolls will be levied in respect of this Light, and of the Beacon on the North Carr Rock, viz.

1. On all vessels which shall pass to or from the westward of a line drawn from Buttonness, in the county of Forfar, to Fifeness, in the county of Fife;
 2. On all vessels to or from the northward, which shall pass to or from the westward of a line drawn from Fifeness to Whitherryness, in the county of Haddington:
- For vessels in the coasting trade, being under 100 tons, 2d. per vessel.
For vessels in the coasting trade, 100. and. unde. 200 tons, 4d. per vessel.
