

Bishop of Bangor, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that he the said Bishop may and shall forthwith collate some fit and proper person to the dignity or office of Archdeacon of the archdeaconry of Bangor; and that the right of collating to the said archdeaconry of Bangor shall be exercised by the said Bishop of Bangor and his successors, Bishops of Bangor, for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that until arrangements shall be recommended and proposed by us, and ratified by your Majesty in Council, under the provisions of the secondly-recited Act, for permanently annexing a canonry residentiary in the cathedral church of Bangor to the said archdeaconry of Bangor, and for duly endowing such canonry, the said archdeaconry of Bangor shall be endowed by augmentation out of the common fund in the said first-recited Act mentioned, and that accordingly there shall be paid by us, on the first day of January in every year, to the Archdeacon of Bangor for the time being, so long as he shall duly reside within the said diocese, the annual sum of one hundred and ninety pounds out of the monies from time to time carried over to such common fund, on production to us of a certificate, under the hand of the Bishop of Bangor for the time being, that such Archdeacon has duly resided during the preceding year, and that a proportionate part of such sum of one hundred and ninety pounds shall be made on the first day of January next following the day of the first appointment of an Archdeacon of Bangor after the date of this scheme; and that whenever a vacancy in the said archdeaconry shall happen on any other day than the first day of January, the then next yearly payment shall be duly apportioned and paid between the archdeacon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the archdeacon succeeding to the said archdeaconry.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bangor.
