TAKE NOTICE.

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom his Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination at the Office of the Court in London, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 1 and 2 Vict. cap. 110, sec. 105.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person, and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 106, as the case may be.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of James Parker, late of Scaynes-hill, Lindfield, near Cuckfield, in the county of Sussex, Farmer and Shoemaker, an insolvent debtor, who was discharged from Prison on or about the 23d day of July 1842, under or by virtue of some or one of the Acts of Parliament made and passed for the relief of insolvent debtors in England, and particularly of an Act, made and passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for abolishing arrest on mesne process in civil actions, except in certain cases, for extending the remedies of creditors against the property of debtors, and for amending the laws for the relief of insolvent debtors in England," will be held on Tuesday the 16th day of April next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the Red Lion Inn, Lindfield, near Cuckfield aforesaid, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said insolvent shall be sold by public auction; and to pass such resolutions and give such directions connected with the above matter as the creditors present may deem expedient.—Dated this 27th day of March 1844.
