FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1844.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 1, 1844.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 25th instant, at two o'clock, to celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, April 19, 1844.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Thursday the 25th of April, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square, by George-street. When called, they are to pass from St. James's-square, by Charles-street, into Regent-street, Jermyn-street, come down St. James's-street as before, take up, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney carriages will be permitted to come within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entrée, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Tuesday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock; their carriages are to enter the gate at Constitution-hill, proceed down St. James's-park, through Stable-yard, into the Ambassador's-court, set down, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Ambassadors, Foreign Ministers, Cabinet Ministers, and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the Ambassadors'-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park till called; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates last mentioned.

LIVERPOOL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th day of April 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable John Hope, Lord Justice Clerk of Scotland, and the Right Honourable Sir Frederick Pollock, Knt.

Office of the Poor Law Commissioners, Somerset-House, April 18, 1844.

In pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, cap. 76, intituled "An Act for the amendment and better administration of the laws relating to the poor in England and Wales;"

This is to give notice, that the Poor Law Commissioners have appointed Colonel Thomas Francis Wade to be an Assistant Commissioner of Poor Laws; and that the said Colonel Francis Thomas Wade, on this present 18th day of April 1844, took the oath required by the said Act, before the Honourable Mr. Justice Wightman, at Westminster-hall.

Signed, by order of the Board,
George Coode, Assistant Secretary.

Church Commissioners' Office, April 17, 1844.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning a chapelry district to the church or chapel at Box-moor, in the parish of Hemel Hempstead, in the county of Hertford, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3., cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 31st of January 1844, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:"

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding."

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Hemel Hempstead, in the county of Hertford and diocese of Lincoln, contained a population of five thousand nine hundred and one persons:

"That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to one thousand five hundred persons, there is only one consecrated chapel in the said parish, situate at Box-moor, which affords accommodation to five hundred and forty-persons, including four hundred and fifteen free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and that divine service is regularly performed therein:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel at Box-moor, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be called "The Chapelry District of Box-moor," with boundaries as follow:

"The chapelry district of Box-moor is to consist of the southernmost part of the parish of Hemel Hempstead, and is bounded on the west by the parish of Bovington; on the south and south east by the parishes of King's Langley and Abbots Langley; on the east by the parish of Saint Michael's; and on the north by the remaining part of the parish of Hemel Hempstead, from which it is separated, by proceeding in a westerly and southerly direction along the middle of the green lane leading from the parish of Saint Michael, by Bunce-fields cottages, to Woodwell homestead; it then proceeds in a westerly direction along the middle of the said green lane, by the pest-house, to Leverstock-green, and, crossing the said green, proceeds along the middle of the road leading to Hemel Hempstead, till it reaches Hardy-field; and then, leaving that road at the line of fence dividing the properties of Mrs. Elizabeth Jennings and Anne Hamilton from that of Mr. Harry Smith, along which fence it proceeds, in a south westerly direction, till it meets Nettles-lane, up the middle of which it proceeds as far as the high road; and, crossing the same, to the fence separating the lands of Mr. Henry Collins and Mr. Robert Merry, along which fence it proceeds westerly; and, crossing the brook, continuing along the hedge separating the Cotterills-meadow from lands belonging to Mr. Henry Collins, as far as Pope's-lane, along the middle of which it proceeds, in a westerly and northerly direction, to the farm buildings at Lockers; from whence it proceeds westerly to the road leading from Green-end, and, proceeding along the middle of that road, in a southerly direction, till it meets the lane facing the middle of Gravel-hill-spring; then westerly, up the middle of the said lane, till it comes to the cottages at Counters-end; it then leaves the lane, and follows the hedge, in a south westerly direction, which divides Lower Wood-field and Stoney-croft from Lower Stoney-croft, as far as the lane leading to Shrub-hill-common; and proceeding south easterly, along the middle of that lane, and on to Shrub-hill-common, and along the north west side thereof to the end of the lane leading to Fields-end, and from which lane it proceeds in a straight line over Fields-end farm, Pouchen-end farm, the Pix farm, and other lands, crossing the lane from Winkwell to Fields-end, the London and Birmingham Railway, the road from Crouch-end, and the Junction-canal, as far as the boundary line of the parish of North Church, in the centre of the road leading to the Pix farm, a few yards south of the bridge over the canal, as shewn by the map, and thereon coloured yellow:

"That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister thereof:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Lincoln has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

WHEREAS Sir Arthur Gore, Baronet, deceased, by indenture, bearing date the 10th day of December, in the year 1730, demised unto Arthur Knox, Esq. all that and those the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises following, that is to say, Drimneen half a quarter, Owenbristly half a quarter, Cloonaghugh half a quarter, Tinemorebegg one third of half a quarter, in Killabrone twenty-eight acres two roods, be the same more or less; Attyart one quarter, Cloonakillin half a quarter, the one moiety of Mingelly, and in the half quarter of Cloonacarra three roods and twenty-one perches, be the same more or less, all situate, lying, and being in the barony of Tyrally, and county of Mayo, with the appurtenances (except as therein), to hold unto the said Arthur Knox, his heirs and assigns, for the three lives therein named, and the survivor of them, subject to the yearly rent and duties therein mentioned; in which lease is contained a covenant for perpetual renewal thereof, on payment of the sum of £5 15s. as a renewal fine, in the manner and within the times therein mentioned; and whereas the said lease has been since frequently renewed, the last renewal whereof bears date on or about the 20th day of February 1799, for the lives of John Knox, Esq. second son of John Knox, deceased, and of John Knox and Edward Knox, the sons of Arthur Knox, deceased, and the survivor of them; and whereas the said John Knox, second son of John Knox deceased, is long since dead, and the reversion and inheritance of the premises demised by the said original lease afterwards became and now are vested in the Right Honourable Philip Yorke, Earl of Arran; and John Knox, now or late of Dix's-fields, near Exeter, Esq. claims to be entitled to the tenant's or lessee's interest in said lands, and is the principal occupier of same under and by virtue of said recited lease and renewals; and whereas a notice in writing was duly served on the said John Knox, at Dix's-fields aforesaid, on the 15th day of March 1838, calling upon him forthwith to pay all renewal fines, septennial fines, and interest due under said recited lease, and that in case he refused or neglected to comply therewith within a reasonable time after the service of the said notice, the said Earl of Arran would consider the right of renewal under said lease to be forfeited;

Now I, the said Earl of Arran, in order to prevent all doubts hereafter as to the proper tenant or assignee of said lease and renewals, do hereby give this notice, pursuant to the Statute in that case made and provided, of such demand as aforesaid made of said fine, of which all persons concerned are required to take notice.—Dated this 25th day of March 1844. TAKE NOTICE.

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination until the last day for entering opposition, inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him. _____
