Whitehall, May 16.

The following Address hath been presented to his Majesty, who received it very Graciously.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Consul and Merchants residing in the City of Lubon.

Most Gracious and Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects do with all thankfulness render to Almighty God our Praises for his great mercies vouchsafed to our Nation in placing your Majesty upon the Throne of your Fathers, maugre all the wicked attempts of some bad men that would have opposed it; A mercy to be remembered to all Posterity, that after it pleased Almighty God (who hath the hearts of all men in his Hands) to take our late Sovereign from us, under whose Government for many years we enjoy'd such abundance of his Blessings both Spiritual and Temporal, as no Nation under Heaven could equal; A loss never enough to be lamented; Yet blessed be his holy Name that hath wiped the Tears from our Eyes, and made us to see Joy and Gladness in our Land, by your Majesties Rightful and happy Succession, under whose blessed Government, if we by our Obedience seek Peace, we cannot doubt but that both Peace, Righteousness and Plenty will flourish in all your Majesties Dominions, and we shall still be the happiest People upon Earth.

Great SIR, In all humility according to the Duty of Faithful and Loyal Subjects, we thus presume to joyn in the Universal Acclamations of our fellow Subjects, prostrating our selves, our Lives and Fortunes at Your sacred feet, with resolution always to be ready to our Duties in the defence of Your Royal Person, Your Rights and Prerogatives against all pretences whatsoever,

And we humbly implore at the Throne of Grace, that God will give your Majesty the Mercies he swore to David, that your Posterity may endure for ever, and Your Throne as the days of Heaven.

There have been likewise presented to his Majesty very Loyal Addresses from the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Church and Diocess of St. Asaph. From the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocess of Landaffe.
