

Orders mentioned should be varied, by forthwith extending the first class therein mentioned, so as to include therein benefices and churches having a population below five hundred and an average annual net income below eighty pounds, and to the raising such income as nearly as may be to that amount; and by forthwith extending the second class therein mentioned, so as to include therein any benefice or church having an average annual net income below two hundred pounds :

“ And whereas we have satisfied ourselves, after due inquiry, that the benefices and churches described in the schedules hereunto annexed, marked A. 1, A. 2, and A. 3, fall within the first of such classes, subject to the respective limitations in the said Orders mentioned; and that the benefices and churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A. 4, fall within the same class, as limited by the said Orders, or as so proposed to be extended as aforesaid; and that all the said benefices and churches are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented by the respective annual amounts stated in the last column of the said schedules respectively :

“ And whereas from the source set opposite to the name of each of the benefices and churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked B., in the sixth column of such schedule, the benefaction stated in the seventh column of the same schedule has either been paid to us on account of such benefice or church, or permanently secured to the incumbent thereof, as therein respectively specified; and we have satisfied ourselves that the said last-mentioned benefices and churches fall within the second of such classes, as limited by the said Orders, or as so proposed to be extended as aforesaid; and are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented, by the respective annual amounts stated in the last column of the same schedule :

“ And whereas the benefices and churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked C., fall within the third class in the said Orders mentioned, and are situate within the places set opposite to the names thereof, respectively, in the fifth column of the same schedule; and certain tithes or lands now vested in us arise or are situate in such places respectively; and, after due inquiry and consideration, we have satisfied ourselves that the same benefices and churches are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented, by the respective annual amounts stated in the last column of the same schedule :

“ And whereas arrangements have been made for appropriating to the churches of Christ Church New Mill and St. Peter, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, mentioned in the said schedule marked A. 1, and of Copmanthorpe with Upper Poppleton and St. John Oakfield, mentioned in the said schedule marked A. 3, the fees arising within their respective districts, whereby the emoluments of the incumbents of the churches mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked D., will be diminished by the amount of the annual sums set opposite to the names of such churches, respectively, in the last column of the same schedule, and it is in our opinion expedient that compensation should be made to the incumbents thereof for the loss so sustained:

“ And whereas in the case of the district church of Kimberworth, contained in the said schedule marked A. 1, application was made to us before the proceedings for legally assigning a district thereto were fully completed, and in the case of the perpetual curacy of West Molesey, contained in the said schedule marked B., possession of the house of residence in the seventh column of the said schedule mentioned was given to the incumbent of the said perpetual curacy before the first day of November last, and in the cases of the vicarages of Alderbury, Alton Pancras, and Newbald, contained in the said schedule marked C., application was long since made to us, but our decision was postponed during the necessary investigation of the respective local claims; and whereas, also, in the case of the said vicarage of Newbald we, in the first instance, resolved to recommend an annual payment of ninety-five pounds, but possession has since been given to the vicar thereof of certain land vested in us, of the computed annual value of forty pounds, and which land we intend to recommend to be permanently annexed to the said vicarage, in part of such intended augmentation :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being
