

of each of the benefices and churches so described in the said schedules, marked respectively A. 1, A. 2, A. 3, B, C, and D, the fixed annual sum set opposite to the name of such benefice or church, in the last column of the said schedules respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year; but in the case of Mansfield, contained in the said schedule A. 1, not after the first day of May or the first day of November, as the case may be, next following the completion of the commutation of the vicarial tithes thereof; and that the first such half-yearly payment shall in such case be made on the first day of May next; except in the cases of Kimberworth, West Molesey, Alderbury, and Alton Pancras aforesaid, the incumbents whereof respectively shall, on such last-mentioned day, receive two such half-yearly payments; and except also in the said case of Newbald, the vicar whereof shall on such last-mentioned day receive four such half-yearly payments, the first and second being at the rate of ninety-five pounds per annum, instead of the rate specified in the said schedule; and that in case of a vacancy in any of the benefices or churches contained in the said four schedules having already happened during the period over which the payment so recommended and proposed extends, or hereafter happening on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the incumbent making the vacancy, or his personal representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the benefice or church so becoming vacant.

“ And whereas we have satisfied ourselves that the several benefices and churches, contained in the schedule hereunto annexed marked E., also fall within the second class aforesaid, except the churches of Muswell-hill and Newbald, which fall within the third class aforesaid; we, therefore, recommend and propose, that, in order to provide fit houses of residence for the incumbents of all the benefices and churches contained in the last-mentioned schedule, we shall be at liberty to pay, to such persons and at such time or times as shall appear to us from time to time to be expedient, such a sum or sums of money, in the case of each such benefice or church, as shall be required for providing a fit house of residence for the incumbent thereof; provided that (except in the cases of the two last-named benefices) the total amount so paid by us, in addition to the amount of the benefaction, shall not exceed such amount where the benefice or church is in public patronage, nor two third parts of such amount where the benefice or church is in private patronage.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure for making better provision for the cure of souls, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them.”
