Published by Authority.

From Sunday May 18. to Thursday May 21. 1685.

Whitehall, May 18

The following Address (which was Signed by above 1000 hands) having been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Bath Lord Warden of the Stanneries, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cornwall, accompanied with Sir John Arundell, Sir Joseph Tredwell, and divers other Cornish Gentlemen; His Majesty was pleased to receive the same very Graciously, with particular marks of His great satisfaction in the constant Loyalty of his Lordship and of the Gentlemen there present, and of the whole County in general.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Tynners of the several Stanneries in the County of Cornwall.

May it please your Majesty,

Nothing could support us under our deep and just Sorrow for the death of our late Gracious Sovereign, but your Majesties happy entrance into the Imperial Throne of these Kingdoms, solely and rightfully come unto You. His laid late Majesties only Brother and Heir, which hath been Proclaimed in every part of this Your County, with all the Acclamations that could be expected from Loyal and Affectionate Subjects. We believe our selves obliged in Duty and Conscience to render at your Majesties Feet our Lives and Fortunes so be at your Devotion in defence of your Sacred Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and the just Prerogatives of Your Crown against all who shall endeavour to undermine, or subvert your Government, which your Majesty hath been Graciously pleased so declare You will Equitantly defend as it is by Law (most happily) establish in Church and State. Humbly beseeching Almighty God (who in his infinite Mercy hath frustrated that damnable Design to Involve these Kingdoms in Blood and Confusion; by interrupting your just and peaceable Succession to the Throne of Your Royal Ancestors) to bless your Majesty with long and happy Years to Reign over us.

There have likewise been presented to His Majesty, very Loyal Addresses, from the Nobility, Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Durby. And from the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Officers of the Militia, the Grand Jury, and the rest of the Gentlemen of the County of Somerset, met at the Assizes held at Taunton; which his Majesty received very graciously.

Venice, April 28. The last Letters from Dalmatia gave an account, that the Proveditore General Pakier since the raising of the Siege of Singra, the ill success whereof is attributed to the Morlaques, has put a good Garrison with Provisions and Ammunition into Cliffa, a place of much importance, which it's believed the Enemy intend to attack. Signior Delfino is gone with 10 Men of War towards the Lewan to hinder the Turks from transporting their Troops from Asia; And the whole Fleet commanded by Captain-General Morofini, will sail from Corfu the beginning of the next month. The Troops of Lunenburg which are about 3000 men, are now in quarters of refreshment; and Vessels are preparing to carry them to the Fleet.

Venice, May 4. The second Infant the Troops of Lunenburg were drawn into a body, the Prince of Hanover being at the head of them, who afterwards gave a very Noble Collation to a great many Persons of Quality who came to see the Troops. The Senate has given a Ducat to each Soldier, and to every Officer a Gold Chain; They now begin to embark and will sail in two or three days with a great Convoy to join the Fleet. We have advice that 1000 new raised men are arrived at Bergamp; and that several Companies of new raised Dragoons are daily expected there. Some of the principal Officers of the Morlaques are coming hither to execute the disorder they fell into upon the Turks appearing before Singra, which obliged the Proveditore General to raise the Siege. The Senate have it's said, resolved to make only a defensive War in Dalmatia this Summer.

Dantzick, May 7. The last Letters from Warsaw are of the 27th of the last month, They tell us, That great endeavors had been used to conclude the Diet on Easter Eve; but that not being able to come to a determination in the most important matters, the Diet had been again prolonged for several days, which it's hoped will be employed more successfully than the rest of their time has been, that so at last the necessary resolutions may be taken for the carrying on the War, which otherwise will be very faintly prosecuted this Summer.

Vienna, May 10. General Palfi is arrived here from Hungary, and says, that the Turks of Newbenzel have offered to deliver to Colonel Heusser all the Christian Slaves that are in the place, upon condition he do in consideration thereof send them a certain quantity of Corn, threatening, if he refuse it, to kill all the laid Slaves, and that Colonel Heusser had answered, That he would give them no Corn, and that in case they did destroy these Christians, or let them dye through Hunger, he would hang all the Turks that should fall into his hands upon the Trees round Newbenzel. General Palfi adds that Colonel Heusser has been informed by several persons, got out of the Town, that the Garrison is reduced to 1200 men. The Duke of Lorain is expected back from Insprucke about the middle of the next month.

Vienna, May 13. The Count de Dain arrived here the 10th Instant with 2000 men who came by Water from Rainhomme; The 13th they received a months Pay and took an Oath of Fidelity to the Emperor; yesterday they were mustered, and to morrow they will part from hence for Hungary; They are to be incorporated into some of the old Regiments; 700 into the Regiment of Nigrelli, 300 into that of Wirtemberg, and the rest into other Regiments. The Count de Dain is gone to give the Emperor an account of his Negotiation with several Princes of the Empire, to whom he was sent by his Imperial Majesty to sollicite Succors against the Turks. The Letters from Hungary tell us, that several thousand Turks are encamped near Pest; that others are marching to join them, and that they make great preparations for the relief of Newbenzel. That Colonel Heusser (who with the reinforcements he has received, is in a condition to make head against them) has posted himself near Barkan, having left several small Parties to secure the passages about Newbenzel, and to keep the Country people from carrying in any Provisions; The Letters add, that Colonel Heusser to be certainly informed of the condition of the place, had sent thither several Peasants with small quantities of Bread, and that being come back, they had given him an account, that they had been very kindly kindly received, that the Soldiers with great eagerness had bought their Bread, giving them what they demanded: That they had been carried before the Bassa, who encouraged them to bring a greater quantity of Bread and some Corn, assuring them they should have what price they would for it; And that they were told by some of the Inhabitants that the Garrison was reduced to 13 or 1400 men, and that they were in that want of Provisions that they could not subsist much longer without relief. The Elector of Bavaria's Ambassadors have had their Audiences of leave of the Emperor, the Empress, and the Archduchess, in order to their return home.

Ratisbonne, May 16. The Letters from Vienna of the 14th Instant tell us that the Troops of Lunenburg were on their march towards Newbeusel, and that so soon as they have joyned Colonel Heustler, he will formally attack that place, the Garrison whereof as we are assured from all hands, is reduced to the last extremity. That the Count de Daun was arrived at Vienna with 2000 men of the Troops of the Electors of Mentz and Trier and of the City of Cologne; and that a considerable sum of Money was sent to Gran and other the frontier places of Hungary to pay those Garrisons.

Hamburg, May 18. The Letters from Warsaw of the 4th Instant say the Diet was not yet ended, the Deputies spending their time in Disputes and fruitless Debates. They write from Berlin that the Baron de Freytag the Imperial Minister, does very much press the Elector of Brandenburg to assist the Emperor with part of his Troops against the Turks, which his Electoral Highness is very well inclined to, but they cannot agree upon the Conditions. From Stockholm we have an account that the King of Sweden had resolved to build 10 or 12 new Men of War this Summer; three at Stockholm, which are to carry from 70 to 80 pieces of Cannon; two at Calmar of the same force, two at Carelsbaven, one at Carelsbroon, and three at Riga, these to carry from 40 to 50 Guns. They write from Copenhagen that the King of Denmark has given leave to several of his Officers to go and serve in Hungary this Summer.

Bague, May 25. Prince Casimir of Nassau, Stadtholder of Friesland and Groningen, parted from hence on Sunday last to return to Leewarden, he passed through Amsterdam but did not see any of the Magistrates of that City. The Prince and Princes of Orange are gone to Honstaedyke to pass a month or six weeks there. The States of Holland have not yet taken a final resolution concerning the state of the War, and it's believed they will adjourn without doing it, till the 15th of July. Yesterday Prince Waldeck received by an Express a Letter from the Emperor, inviting him to pass the approaching Campaign in Hungary, and it's said he has thereupon resolved to part from hence in few days on his journey thither. The Duke of Saxe Gotha who has been here 8 or 10 days, went yesterday to Amsterdam, and from thence will return home.

Paris, May 26. The Doge and Senators of Genova were again at Versailles on Wednesday last and appeared at the Kings rising, after which they went to pay their Respects to the Dauphin and Dauphiness, and were entertained at Dinner by the Kings Officers; They will, we are told, have their Audience of leave the next week. The last week arrived here two Ambassadors from the Czars of Moscovy; who had Audience of the King the 22. Instant, being conducted in the Kings Coach, accompanied with the Marschal d'Humieres and the Introducer of Ambassadors; They presented to his Most Christian Majesty in the Name of the Czars several pieces of Persian Silks and rich Furs. On the 24th my Lord Preston, Envoy Extraordinary from his Majesty of Great Britain, had his Audience of leave of the King. The Marquis de Torcy is gone for Denmark to make the Compliment upon the death of the Queen Mother. The 28th Instant a Deputy from the City of Geneva had Audience of the King. The Deputies of the Clergy met yesterday for the first time in the Arch-Bishops Palace, to fix the day when they shall meet at St. Germain's, and enter upon business.

Whitehall, May 19. This day the Parliament met at Westminster pursuant to His Majesties Writs of Summons; And the Commons being by the Black Rod sent for unto the House of Lords to attend his Majesty, who was seated on His Throne in His Royal Robes with the usual Solemnity, the Lord Keeper declared to them his Majesties Pleasure to defer his speaking to them until the Members of both Houses had taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Act of Parliament; when his Majesty would declare His Mind to them concerning the Causes of calling this Parliament, and that his Majesty's Pleasure farther was, That the Gentlemen of the House of Commons should separate and proceed immediately to the choice of a Speaker, whom his Majesty appointed to be presented at four a Clock this afternoon. After which the Commons returned to their House and unanimously made choice of Sir John Trevor one of the Kings Council at Law, to be their Speaker, who being this afternoon accordingly presented to his Majesty seated on His Throne in the House of Lords, his Majesty did graciously approve of him.

His late Majesty of ever blessed Memory in His New Charter to the City of Carlisle, granted them a Fair to be held Annually the first Wednesday in June for all sorts of Cattle and other Merchandise; And on the Thursday after a Plate of a considerable Value, and on Friday a Plate of a lesser value are to be run for.
