The London Gazette.

Published by Auchority.

From Donday May 18. to Courseap May 21. 1685.

Whiteball, May 18 The following Address (which was Signed by above 1 tood hands) having been preferred to His Majery by the Right Honorabin one Earl of Ranke Lord : Warden of the Stanneries, and Lord Licutenane of the County of Cornwall, accompanied with Sir Folm Arundell, Sir Fofeph Tredenbam, and divers other Cornish Greetemens His Majesty was pleased to receive the same very Graciously, with particular marks of His great fatisfaction in the constant Lovalty of his Lordship and of the Gentlementhere pretent, and of the whole County in general.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Typners of the several Stanneries in the County of Cornwall.

May it please your Majesty,

Othing could support as under our steep and just Sorrow for the death of our late Gazcious soveraign, but your Majesties happy entrance into the Imperial Throne of their Kingdoms, folely and rightfully come unto You His laid late Majesties only Brother and Heir, which hath heep residented in every part of this late Majesties only Brother and Heir, which hath been Proclaimed in every part of this Your County, with all the Acquiracings that could be expected from Loyal and Affectionate Subjects. We believe our Icles subjects of the State of the St Mercy naturated that damagne being to invove these Ringdoms-in-Blood and Confusion, by interrupting your just and peaceable succession in the Throne of Your Royal Ance-Akora) to bless your Majelly with long and happy Years to Reign ADV PIE US.

There have likewise been presented to His Majesty, very Loyal Addresses, From the Nobility, Lieutenancy, High Sheriff, Junices of the Preaco, Grand Jury, Genery, Clergy, and Free-holders of the County of Darby. And from the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Preace, Officers of the Militia, the Grand Jury, and the relit of the Geneleman of the County of Samerica, and at the Assizes held at Taunton; which his Majesty received very graciously,

The last Letters from Dalmatia Venice, April 28. gave an account, that the Proveditore General Pahier lince the raising of the Seige of Singu, the ill fuccels whereof is attributed to the Morlaques, has put a good Garison with Provisions and Ammunition into Cliffa, a place of much importance, which h's believed the Enemy latend to attack. "Signior Delfino is gone with 10 Men of War towards the Lewant to hinder the Turks from transporting their Troops from Afia; And the whole Fleet commanded by Captain-General Morofini, will fail from Corfu she beginning of the next month. The Troops of Amenburgh which are about 3000 men, are now in quarters of refreshment; and Vessels are preparing to carry them so the Fleet.

Venice, May 4. The second Instant the Troops of Lunenburgh were drawn into a body, the Prince of Hanouer being at the head of them, who afterwards gave a very Noble Collation to a great many Persons of Quality who came to see the Troops. The Senarchangiven a Ducan to each Soldier, and to every Officer a Gold Chain; They pow hegin to embark and will fail in two or three days with a great Convoy to joun the Fleet. We have advice that 1000 new railed men are arrived at Bergamo; and that leveral Companies of new raised Dragoons are daily expected there. Some of the principal Officers of the Morlagues are coming hither to excuse the disorder they fell into upon the Turks appearing theore singul which obliged the Provedi-tory General to rame the Suege. The Senate have, it's faid, resolved to make only a defensive War in Palmais this Summer.

Dankeicke, May 2. The last Letters from Warfaw are of the 27th of the last month, They tell us, This great endeavors had been used to conclude the Det on Hatter Eve; but that not being able to come to a determination in the most important matters, the Dyet had be en again prolonged for several days, which it's hoped will be amplified more successfully than the rest of their time has been, that so at last the necessary resolutions may be taken for the carrying on the War, which otherwise will be very faintly profequed this Summer. General Palsi is arrived here

Vienne, May 10. General Palfi is arrived here from Hungary, and fays, that the Turks of Newben-fel bave onered to deliver to Colonel Heusler all the Christian flaves that are in the place, upon condition he do in confiferation thereof send them a certain quantity of Corn, threatning, if he refuse it, to kill all the laid Slaves, and that Colonel Heuster had ar-swered, That he would give them no Corn, and that in case they did destroy these Christians, or let them dye through Hunger, he would hang all the Turks that should fall into his hands upon the Trees round Newheusel. General Palfi adds that Colonel Heuster has been informed by leveral persons, got cut of the Town, that the Garison is reduced to 1200 men. The Duke of Lorrain is expected back from Insprucke about the middle of the next month. Vienna, May 13. The Count de Daun arrived here the 10th Initant with 2000 men who came by Water from Ratinhonne; The 1 th they received a months Pay and took an Oath of Fidelity to the Emperor; yellerday they were multered, and to morrow they will part from hence for Hungary: They are to be incorporated into some of the old Regiments; 700 into the Regiment of Nigrelli, 300 into that of Wirtembergh, and the rest into other Regiments, The Court is now at Newstadt whither the Count de Daun is gone to give the Emperor an account of his Negotiation with several Princes of the Empire, to whom he was fent by his Imperial Majefly to follicite Succors against the Turks: Letters from Hungary tell us, that several thousand Turks are encamped near Pell, that others are marching to joyn them, and that they make great preparations for the relief of Newbenfel. That Colanel Heufter (who with the reinforcements he has received, is in a condition to make head against them) has polied himfelf near Barkan, havi, g left feveral small Parties to secure the passages about Newbeusel, and to keep the Country prople from carrying in any Provisions; The Letters add, that Colonel Heufler to be certainly informed of the condition of the place, had fent thither several Peasants with small quantities of Bread, and that being come back, they had given him an account, that they had been very