

Windsor-Castle, September, 1844.

The following Addresses having been transmitted for presentation to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, the same were presented accordingly; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously :

To His Royal Highness Prince ALBERT of Saxe Coburg and Gotha.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, offer to your Royal Highness our congratulations on the happy event of the birth of a Prince.

To the offspring of your Royal Consort we look with confidence for a succession of Sovereigns fitted to rule over a free people, being well assured that, under the care of your Royal Highness and your Royal Consort, they will be brought up in the exercise of every virtue, and be taught, both by precept and example, those duties which belong to their high station.

We pray the Almighty to bless your Royal Highness with a long life of domestic felicity.

Given under the common seal of the Corporation of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, this 7th day of August 1844.

John Fox, Mayor.

And the following upon the same subject :

From the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the city of Edinburgh.

From the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, the Jurats of the Royal Court, the Clergy, the Procureur de la Reine, and the Constables of all the parishes of the island of Guernsey.

From the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the Commission of the General Assembly.

From the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Doncaster.

From the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Wigan, in the county of Lancaster.

From the London Committee of Deputies of British Jews, for themselves and the several Congregations represented by them.

From the Dean and Canons of the College of Christ, in Manchester, founded by King Charles.

From the Master, Wardens, and Brethren of the Royal Albert Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Dublin.

From the Members of the Dublin Protestant Operative Association and Reformation Society, and other Protestants, assembled at the Rounda.

Blair-Castle, September 13, 1844.

The following Addresses, from the Corporation of Dundee, were presented to His Royal Highness Prince Albert; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously :

To His Royal Highness Prince ALBERT.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the royal burgh of Dundee, humbly beg leave to tender our respectful congratulations to your Royal Highness on the occasion of this your gracious visit to Scotland; an event which, we beg to assure your Royal Highness, has afforded the most unmingled pleasure and satisfaction to all classes in Scotland, and more especially to the community of this ancient burgh, whom we have the honour to represent.

Signed, in name and by authority of the Magistrates and Town Council of the royal burgh of Dundee, in Council assembled, and the common seal of said burgh hereto affixed, at Dundee, the 10th day of September 1844 years.

To His Royal Highness Prince ALBERT.

The humble Address of the Guildry Incorporation of the royal borough of Dundee.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Dean of Guild and other Members of the Guildry Incorporation of Dundee, rejoice in the opportunity afforded us, by the arrival of Her Majesty and your Royal Highness in this ancient borough, of expressing, not only our loyalty and attachment to our Gracious Sovereign, but our profound respect and regard for your Royal Highness.

We congratulate your Royal Highness on the birth of the Infant Prince; and we trust that your Royal Highness may be long spared in the enjoyment of every personal and domestic comfort.

We trust that the present visit of Her Majesty and your Royal Highness to this ancient kingdom may be conducive to the health and enjoyment of both.

Subscribed, in name and by appointment of the Guildry Incorporation, in Guildhall assembled, at Dundee, the 10th September 1844, by

William J. Ewart, Dean of Guild.
