

ings, and stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose," power is given to us, from time to time, by order or notice in writing under our respective hands, or the hand of our Secretary, to order at what place or places, within or near all or any of such ports, harbours, havens, roads, roadsteads, sounds, channels, creeks, bays, or navigable rivers, no private ships of war, transports, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, shall come or be laden with, or having on board thereof, any quantity or quantities of gunpowder exceeding five pounds weight in the whole :

And whereas we have deemed it necessary and expedient, in pursuance of the last-mentioned Act, to order, and we do hereby order, that, from and after the 10th day of October 1844, no private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, shall come or be laden with, or have on board thereof any quantity or quantities of gunpowder, exceeding five pounds weight in the whole, in any place or places in the river Thames above Barking Reach.

Given under our hands this 26th day of September 1844,

W. H. GAGE.
W. GORDON.

By command of their Lordships,
John Barrow.

Trinity-House, London, September 24, 1844.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, of the eighth year of Queen Elizabeth, intituled "An Act concerning sea marks and mariners," and also by virtue of divers ancient grants and charters, and particularly of a certain grant, dated the 11th day of June, in the thirty-sixth year of Her said Majesty, whereby the beaconage and buoyage and the office of beaconage and buoyage were, upon the surrender thereof into the hands of Her Majesty by Charles Lord Howard Baron of Effingham, then being Her Majesty's Great Admiral of England, granted unto the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Corporation of Trinity-House of Deptford Strond, the said Corporation is entitled to erect and maintain such and so many beacons, marks, and signs for the sea as to them shall seem most meet, whereby dangers may be avoided, and ships the better come to their ports without peril; and whereas it has been intimated to the said Corporation of Trinity-House, by Mr. William Bush, of Union-street, Deptford, in the county of Kent, in writing, under date the 20th day of September instant, that he has been engaged for several months in erecting, on the Goodwin Sand, lying off the east coast of the county of Kent, "an iron column, with the twofold object of fixing thereon a red light, for the guidance of mariners, and for boring the quicksand, to ascertain its depth, with the ultimate view of erecting a more permanent light-house;" and farther that, "on or before the 1st of November next, he shall shew, at the top of the column, a brilliant red light;" and whereas the erection of such column, and the exhibition of a light thereon, being an unlawful violation and infringement of the power and authority vested in the said Corporation of Trinity-House by the Act of Parliament and Royal Grant aforesaid, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the said Corporation do hereby give notice to the said William Bush, and to all persons, workmen, and others, acting with, or under the direction, or by the orders of the said William Bush, in erecting the column before-mentioned, and in exhibiting a light therefrom, that such their proceedings are unauthorized and illegal; and they do farther hereby require him and them forthwith to desist therefrom.

By command of the Corporation,
J. Herbert, Secretary.

Office of Mixed British and Portuguese Commission, No. 94, Mount-Street, Grosvenor-Square, September 25, 1844.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the payment of the Titulos, issued by the Mixed British and Portuguese Commission, due on the 1st of October next, together with the interest accruing to that date upon the remainder of the series issued for each claim, will commence on the 1st of October, at the office of the said Commission, and be continued on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, from eleven to three o'clock.

All parties holding more than one series of Titulos will be required to fill up a form, which will be delivered upon application at the office, giving a list of the Titulos they hold, with the interest due upon each, calculated separately, at the rate of £5 per cent. per annum, from the date of issue to the 1st of October 1844.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a building, named St. Mary's, situated in the district and city of Bristol, being a building licenced and used for public religious worship as a Roman Catholic Church exclusively, was, on the 24th day of September 1844, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 25th day of September 1844,

W. P. Hartley, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Horeb Chapel, situated in the hamlet of Meiros, in the parish of Llanegwad, in the county of Carmarthen, in the district of Llandilofawr, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 26th day of August 1844, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 24th day of September 1844,

J. Prothero Lewis, Superintendent Registrar.
