

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby revoke and annul the said Order in Council of the third day of September last, approving the proposed alteration and re-division of the said wards, and of the number of Councillors re-assigned to each respectively, as set forth and recommended in the above mentioned report of the said Barristers, and doth order this notice of such revocation to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of October 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England and Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county palatine of Lancaster, in general session of the peace, held, by adjournment, at Kirkdale, in the said county, on the seventeenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county is insufficient, and, therefore, praying that the towns of Southport and Saint Hellens may be polling places for the said southern division of the county of Lancaster :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said places named in the said petition, namely, the towns of Southport and Saint Hellens shall be polling places for the southern division of the said county palatine of Lancaster; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county of Lancaster, assembled at the general quarter sessions, or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said southern division of the said county of Lancaster in convenient polling places, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.
