

place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Gloucester, at a general quarter session of the peace held in Gloucester, in and for the said county, on Tuesday the second day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the western division of the said county is insufficient, and, therefore, praying that the village of Alvington, in the parish of Alvington, situate within the said western division, may be a polling place for that division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said place named in the said petition, namely, the village of Alvington, in the parish of Alvington, shall be a polling place for the western division of the said county of Gloucester; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county of Gloucester, assembled at the general quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said western division of the said county of Gloucester into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

Windsor-Castle, October, 1844.

The following Addresses having been transmitted for presentation to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, the same were presented accordingly; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness Prince ALBERT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Warwick, in Council assembled, Her Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, desire most respectfully to approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt congratulations on Her Majesty's safe delivery, and the auspicious event of the birth of a Prince.

We acknowledge with gratitude the mercy of Divine Providence in granting to your Royal Highness so abundant a share of domestic bliss; and we earnestly pray that your Royal Highness may long continue in health, prosperity, and happiness, to be an ornament to these realms.

Given under our common seal at the Court-house, in the borough of Warwick, the 13th day of August, in the year of our Lord, 1844.

Philip Wm. Newsam, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness Prince ALBERT.

WE, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Justices, Aldermen, Councillors, and Inhabitants of the town and borough of Guildford, in the county of Surrey, assembled at a public meeting held this 22d day of August 1844, which was convened by the Mayor, pursuant to a requisition for that purpose, beg to offer your Royal Highness our hearty congratulations on her Majesty's recent safe delivery, and the birth of another Prince.

We trust that it may please Almighty God to uphold this Scion of the illustrious House of Brunswick by his gracious Providence, that in his future years he may be regarded with affection and veneration by every inhabitant of these realms, and that his name may be known throughout the world only to be honoured, admired, and blessed.

This Address is signed by me, on behalf of the meeting, as directed by a resolution of the meeting,

Cussteels Cooper, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE ALBERT of Saxe Coburg and Gotha.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city of Lichfield, in Council assembled, on the 12th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1844.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city of Lichfield, desire to offer to your Royal Highness our cordial and heartfelt con-
