NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to authorise the construction and maintenance of a railway or railways, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the London and Birmingham Railway, in the parish of Willesden, in the county of Middlesex, passing thence, from, in, through, or into, the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial, or other places, of Willesden, Acton, East Acton, Fulham, Hammersmith, Saint Mary Abbott's Kensington, Saint Luke Chelsea, and Little Chelsea, or some of them, in the county of Middlesex, to the shore of the River Thames, in the said county, and thence by means of a bridge across the said river to the opposite shore thereof, in the county of Surrey, and thence in or through the several parishes, townships, districts, and extra-parochial or other places, of Battersea, Wandsworth, Clapham, Saint Mary Newington, Lambeth, the Liberties of the Palace of Lambeth, Saint Mark Kennington, and Saint John Waterloo, or some of them, in the county of Surrey, and terminating at or near the proposed Hungerford Suspension Bridge, in the said parish of Lambeth.

And it is intended by the said Act or Acts to incorporate a Company for carrying into effect the purposes aforesaid, and to enable such Company to purchase lands and buildings by compulsion, and to levy and raise rates, tolls, and duties, upon and in respect of the said intended railway and works, and also upon and in respect of the passage over the said intended bridge over the Thames, which bridge it is proposed to make applicable as well for the passage of railway engines and carriages as of foot passengers, horses, cattle, and vehicles of all descriptions.

And by such Act or Acts it is further proposed to vary, repeal, or extinguish, all existing rights and privileges, which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges as well as such exemptions from the payment of the aforesaid rates; tolls, and duties, as to such Company may seem meet.

And it is further proposed to enable the said Company to stop up, alter, and divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all roads, highways, railways, canals, streams, rivers, pipes, aqueducts, sewers, and other such works as it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert for the purposes of the said intended undertaking.

And by the said intended Act or Acts it is further proposed, to enable the Company to be thereby incorporated, to sell or let the said intended undertaking or any part thereof, and all or any of the powers and privileges which may be conferred on them in relation thereto, to the London and Birmingham Railway Company, the Great Western Railway Company, the South Western Railway Company, and the South Eastern Railway Company, or any or either of them; or to any other Company, and to enable any of the aforesaid Companies or any such other Company to purchase or rent the said undertaking or any part thereof, and to use exercise and enjoy all or any of such powers and privileges, and generally to enable the said Companies or any or either of them to enter into and carry into effect such arrangements as may be agreed on with the Company to be incorporated as aforesaid, in
