November, 1844.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and obtain an Act to alter and amend the powers and provisions of a certain local Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, cap. 113, intituled "An Act for better relief and maintenance of the poor, and for making a more adequate provision for the rector of the parish of St. Matthew Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex; and for more effectually lighting, watching, cleansing, and improving the streets and other public places of and within the said parish;" which said application is more especially intended to abolish the present mode of raising the necessary funds for payment of the rector's stipend, and to substitute a rate or assessment in lieu thereof; and that such bill will likewise contain a provision for repairs and support of the church; and also such other powers, alterations, and provisions as may be deemed expedient for the purposes of the said Act.—Dated this 9th day of November 1844.

Robert Brutton, Vestry Clerk of Bethnal-green:

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal or alter, amend, and re-enact the provisions, in whole or in part, contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Edinburgh Life Assurance Company to sue and be sued in the name of their manager, secretary, or a limited number of their ordinary directors, to hold property, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and for granting certain additional powers and privileges to the said company.

Jas. T. Murray, W. S., Solicitor to the Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, watching, lighting, and improving the town of Burnley, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" and it is intended to confer further powers for lighting the said town and for supplying the inhabitants with gas, and for collecting rents for such supply.—Dated this fourteenth day of November 1844.
