

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches," beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Hope, in the county of Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church or chapel of Saint Michael, at Llannfynydd, in the said parish, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Llannfynydd," and should consist of the townships of Uwch-y-mynydd uchaf and Uwch-y-mynydd isaf, and part of the township of Cymmau, with boundaries as follow :

"The district is bounded on the north by the parishes of Mold and Tryddyn; on the west by the parish of Llandegla; on the south by the parish of Wrexham, and the remaining part of the township of Cymmau, from which it is separated by a line commencing at the point where the parish of Wrexham and the township of Cymmau meet; and proceeding from thence along the middle of Fordd-las-road, in an easterly direction, as far as Strytgarregog-road, up the middle of which road it proceeds northerly as far the boundary of the said township of Cymmau; it then turns easterly along the boundary of that township as far as the township of Rhanberfedd, which township forms the eastern boundary of the district, as more particularly shewn on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow :

"That banns of marriage should be published, and marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister thereof :

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Saint Asaph has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of February 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid
