At the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners "of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating "the cathedral churches of Wales," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend William Bishop of Saint Asaph, that the rural deanries of Marchia, Rhos, Tegengle, and Bromfield, comprising the whole of the said archdeaconry of Saint Asaph, are now inconveniently large, and it appears to the said bishop and to us to be expedient and proper that such deanries should be divided as hereinafter mentioned:
