Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1845.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 17, 1845.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Levees, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Wednesday, 5th March next.

Wednesday, 12th March next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees; but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen, who are to be presented at the Levees, will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons, having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of February 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, bearing date the third day of September last past, reciting, that, by an Order in Council, dated the fourth day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, reciting therein, among other things, an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales;" and further reciting, that Nathaniel Richard Clarke, Esq. and Richard Wildman, Esq. the barristers appointed pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess' and councillors' list of the city of Lincoln, in the then present year (the said city of Lincoln being one of the boroughs included in schedule A), did, within sixty days after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portion of the said borough should be included therein respectively; and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned in conjunction with the name of such borough in the said schedule, and the said barristers had duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that was to say :

" City of Lincoln.

" We, Nathaniel Richard Clarke and Richard Wildman, being the barristers appointed by virtue of the Statute of the fifth and sixth of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," to revise the lists of the citizens of the city of Lincoln, do, by virtue of such appointment, hereby divide the said city into two wards, to be called the Minster Ward and Bridge Ward, respectively, and do hereby determine and set out the extent, limit, and boundary lines of the said wards, and the portions of the said city to be included therein, respectively, as follows, that is to say :

" The Minster Ward shall comprise and consist of the parishes and places under mentioned, that is to say, Saint John, Newport; Saint Nicholas; Saint Paul; Saint Mary Magdalene; Saint Margaret, with the Palace-precinct; Saint Peter, in Eastgate; Saint Michael; and Saint Martin :

" And the said ward, to be called the Bridge Ward, shall consist of the parishes and places under mentioned, that is to say, Saint Peter; at

Arches; Saint Swithin; the Liberty of the Monks; Saint Benedict; Saint Mary le Wigford; Saint Mark; Saint Peter, at Gowts; and Saint Botolph; and we do hereby apportion nine councillors to each of the said wards; and further reciting, that the division and assignment so made by the said barristers appeared to be, in certain particulars, liable to objection; therefore His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, did thereby disapprove of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said city; but, nevertheless, His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, did order that the particulars of the division and assignment so made by the said barristers should be published in the London Gazette, in order that such force and validity might be given thereto as is authorised and directed by the said Act. And such first-mentioned Order further recited, that it was deemed expedient to remove the objection which existed to the said division and assignment so made by the said barristers, who were thereupon directed to determine and set out afresh the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said wards into which it is provided by the said Act that certain boroughs should be divided, and especially as to the said city of Lincoln; and further reciting, that the said Nathaniel Richard Clarke and Richard Wildman, the said barristers appointed in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, had determined and set out afresh the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the several wards into which it was expedient that the said city of Lincoln should be divided, and the town councillors thereof; and the said barristers had duly transmitted a report of the particulars of the number of councillors so reassigned to the several wards, in the words following:

" We, Nathaniel Richard Clarke and Richard Wildman, being the barristers appointed by virtue of the Statute of the fifth and sixth of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to provide for the regulation of the municipal corporations in England and Wales,' to revise the list of citizens of the city of Lincoln, having, by virtue of such appointment, divided the said city into two wards, and such division not having been approved of by His said late Majesty, and we having been duly required further to consider and inquire into the circumstances, do, upon such further inquiry and consideration, humbly report to Her Majesty the Queen, that it will be expedient to divide, and we do, therefore, hereby divide, the said city into three wards, to be called the Upper Ward, the Middle Ward, and the Lower Ward, respectively, and do hereby determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said wards, and the portion of the said city to be included therein respectively, as follows, that is to say :

" The Upper Ward to consist of the parishes of Saint Paul; Saint Mary Magdalene; and Saint Margaret, with the Palace-precinct, in the Bail and Close; and Saint John, in Newport; Saint Nicholas, in Newport; Saint Peter, in Eastgate; and Saint Michael :

“ And the Middle Ward to consist of the parishes of Saint Martin, Saint Swithin, and the liberty of the Monks :

“ And the Lower Ward to consist of the parishes of Saint Peter, at Arches; Saint Benedict; Saint Mary le Wigford; Saint Mark; Saint Peter, at Gowts; and Saint Botolph :

“ And we do hereby apportion six councillors to each of the said wards :

“ And we recommend the under-mentioned councillors to be assigned to the under-mentioned wards, respectively, that is to say, John East, Joseph George Doughty, Thomas Newton, Charles Ward, Henry Williams, and Robert Sharp, to the Upper Ward; John Sharpe, William Parry, Robert Dawber, Michael Penistan, William Marshall, Edward William Rudgard Rudgard, to the Middle Ward; and Thomas Michael Keyworth, Richard Sutton Harvey, Richard Whitton, John Key, George Calder, and Anselm Odling, to the Lower Ward :

“ As witness our hands this thirty-first day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-four,

(Signed) “ N. R. Clarke.
“ Richard Wildman.”

And Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, did thereby approve of the proposed alteration and re-division of the said wards, and of the number of councillors re-assigned to each, respectively, as set forth and recommended in the last above-mentioned report of the said barristers, and did order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

And whereas by a further Order in Council, bearing date the seventh day of October last, whereby it was ordered, that the last hereinbefore-recited Order, of the third day of September last, should be revoked and annulled, and which Order of revocation was published in the London Gazette; and whereas it hath been deemed expedient, that the said report of the said barristers should be, and the same hath been, duly referred again to them for reconsideration, and the said barristers have transmitted a report in the words and figures following :

“ We, Nathaniel Richard Clarke and Richard Wildman, being the barristers appointed by virtue of the Statute of the fifth and sixth of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to provide for the regulation of “ municipal corporations in England and Wales,” to revise the lists of citizens of the city of Lincoln, having, by virtue of such appointment, divided the said city into two wards, and such division not having been approved of by His said late Majesty, and we having been duly required further to consider and enquire into the circumstances, do, upon such further enquiry and consideration, humbly report to Her Majesty the Queen, that it will be expedient to divide, and we do, therefore, hereby divide, the said city into three wards, to be called the Upper Ward, the Middle Ward, and the Lower

Ward, respectively, and do hereby determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said wards, and the portions of the said city to be included therein respectively as follows, that is to say, the Upper Ward to consist of the parishes of Saint Paul; Saint Mary Magdalen; and Saint Margaret, with the Palace-precinct, in the Bail and Close; and Saint John, in Newport; Saint Nicholas, in Newport; Saint Peter, in Eastgate; and Saint Michael; and the Middle Ward to consist of the parishes of Saint Martin, Saint Swithin, and the liberty of the Monks; and the Lower Ward to consist of the parishes of Saint Peter, at Arches; Saint Benedict; Saint Mary le Wigford; Saint Mark; Saint Peter, at Gowts; and Saint Botolph; and we do hereby apportion six councillors to each of the said wards; and we recommend that, on the twenty-eighth day of February next, the under-mentioned councillors be assigned to the under-mentioned wards, respectively, that is to say, Charles Ward, Robert Dawber, Henry Williams, Robert Swan, Richard Carline, and Thomas Michael Keyworth, to the Upper Ward; Michael Penistan, Thomas Newton, Edward William Rudgard Rudgard, William Marshall, John Shaw, and William Cook Norton, to the Middle Ward; and Richard Whitton, William Andrew, Anselm Odling, George Calder, Richard Sutton Harvey, and John Richard Battle, to the Lower Ward.

“ We approve and adopt this report as now amended.

“ As witness our hands this thirty-first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-five,

“ Richard Wildman.”

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby approve of the said alteration and re-division of the said wards, and of the number of councillors re-assigned to each respectively, as set forth and recommended in the above-amended report of the said barristers, and doth hereby order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of February 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the first year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to amend an “ Act for the regulation of municipal corporations “ in England and Wales,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England or Wales shall petition His Majesty to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any such charter, if he shall think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council, to grant the same, to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough, within the district to be set forth in such charter, all the powers and provisions of the Act of the fifth and sixth of William the Fourth, cap. seventy-six, for regulating corporations, whether such town or borough be or be not a corporate town or borough, or be or be not named in either of the schedules to the said Act; provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order that the same be taken in consideration by His Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the borough of Bradford, in the county of York, have presented a petition to Her Majesty, praying a charter of incorporation for the said borough; Her Majesty is this day pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be taken into consideration, by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on Monday the tenth day of March next.

C. C. Greville.

Whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette of the fourth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, it is provided, that the rural deanry of Tegengle, in the archdeaconry of Saint Asaph (upon the next avoidance thereof, or at any previous time, upon the consent, in writing, of the then present rural dean thereof, such consent to be published in the London Gazette, and to take effect on the fourteenth day next after such publication, unless such avoidance shall sooner happen), shall be divided and re-arranged in the manner set forth in the said Order:

I, the undersigned, Henry Parry, Rural Dean of the said deanry of Tegengle, hereby give my consent to the division and re-arrangement of the said rural deanry, as by the said Order is provided.

Henry Parry.

Mersey Conservancy.—Notice.

To Captain Evans, R. N. Acting Conservator of the River Mersey.

WE, John Fletcher, of St. Michel's-mount, Toxteth-park Liverpool, Gentleman, and Nathaniel Reyner, of Parliament-street, Liverpool, broker, according to the provisions of a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for better preserving the navigation of the river Mersey," hereby give notice, that we propose to make, construct, or erect on the shore of the said river, at a certain village or hamlet, called Egremont, in the parish of Wallasey, in the county of Chester, and adjoining to a certain pier and jetty now existing on the shore of the said river, at the said village or hamlet of Egremont, a certain slip or line of railway, to be made of masonry, and to extend from west to east beyond the line of high water mark, as described in the said Act, not more than nine hundred feet; and the object of the said slip or line of railway is to improve the means of transit of goods and passengers to and from the said village or hamlet, called Egremont, across the said river.

And also to make, construct, or erect on the south side of the said slip or line of railway, and adjoining to the said slip or line of railway, a certain quay or wharf, to extend beyond the said line of high water mark not more than ninety-five feet, and to be constructed of masonry and of soil excavated from that part of the shore of the said river which adjoins the said slip or line of railway hereinbefore described; and the object of the said quay or wharf is, that the said quay or wharf may form a dry dock, with tidal gates for the protection of the carriages, engines, and machinery employed on the said slip or line of railway, and serve as a wharf for the landing of coals and other merchandize.

And also to make certain additions and improvements in timber and masonry to the said pier and jetty now existing on the shore of the said river, at the said village or hamlet, called Egremont, by raising the south side of the said last-mentioned pier and jetty so as to exclude the water from the dry dock hereinbefore mentioned, and facilitate the passing of goods and passengers to and from the said slip or line of railway to and from the said village or hamlet of Egremont.

And also, with masonry and with soil excavated from that part of the shore of the said river which adjoins the said slip or line of railway and the said quay or wharf, to alter and improve the highways at present running north and south from the said village or hamlet, called Egremont, to the shore of the said river, and extending beyond the said line of high water mark not more than twenty feet.

And we further give notice, that, owing to the said works hereinbefore proposed to be made, constructed, or erected, the tidal waters of the said river will not be excluded, impeded, or interrupted, and we propose to commence the said works at the expiration of the shortest period of time allowed by the provisions of the said Act from the issuing of this notice.

Dated this 25th day of February, A. D. 1845.

John Fletcher.
Nathl. Reyner.

Cromer.—Protection from the Sea.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, for an Act, for protecting the town and parish of Cromer, in the county of Norfolk, from the further encroachment of the sea, by erecting and maintaining a new jetty or break-water, and sea walls, groins, and other works and defences on the beach and cliffs, in the said parish, with convenient ways, walks, or promenades on or along the same, and regulating the use thereof; and also for putting under the controul and management of the Commissioners to be appointed by such Act, the future maintenance of the existing sea walls, groins, and other works and defences, situate in the said parish; with powers to alter, rebuild, and, from time to time, extend and improve the same; and to make and maintain proper approaches to all or any of such works, with convenient ways, walks, or promenades on or along the same, and to regulate the use thereof.

And it is also intended by the said Act, to obtain powers for the compulsory purchase of houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments requisite for the purposes aforesaid, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected therewith.

And it is also intended by the said Act, to obtain powers for levying rates or assessments on the owners of all houses, buildings, curtilages, and small pieces of land in the parish of Cromer, for raising money for defraying the expences of the several works aforesaid, and of obtaining and passing the Act, and carrying the same into execution; and for borrowing money on the credit of such rates or assessments.

And notice is also hereby given, that duplicate plans of the said intended jetty and approaches, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Norfolk, at Aylsham, on or before the twenty-eighth day of February instant; and that, on or before the same day, a copy of such plan and book of reference will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Cromer, at his place of abode, in Cromer; and it is also intended by the said Act, to obtain powers to deviate to an extent not exceeding two hundred yards from the site marked on the said plans, as the site of such jetty and approaches.

Robt. Cooch, Solicitor, Cromer.
