"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements may, from time to time, be made by the authority therein provided, for improving the value or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill-endowed parishes or districts, by means of such alterations in the exercise of patronage as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop :

"And whereas the church of St. Mary Magdalen, Billericay, in the said parish of Great Burstead, is in the joint patronage of Thomas Spitty, Esq.; George Shaw, Solicitor; William Moore, William Moore the younger, and Richard Wingfield, Gentlemen; John Barrell, grocer; and Finch Wood, miller; all of Billericay aforesaid; and therefore does not fall within the provisions of the several Orders of your Majesty in Council respecting grants in augmentation of benefices and churches out of the moneys in our hands under the said recited Act, so far as such provisions relate to unconditional grants; and in order to bring it within such provisions, the said patrons desire to transfer their right of patronage in such church in manner hereinafter mentioned :

"We, therefore, recommend and propose, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of such present patrons respectively (in testimony wherof all the said consenting parties have signed and sealed this scheme), that the patronage of and right of nomination to such church shall become and be transferred to and absolutely vested in the Right Reverend Charles James Bishop of London, and his successors for ever."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.
