

deaconry shall be situate, or as to any archdeacon then existing within the diocese in which his archdeaconry was situate before the passing of the said Act, but subject to the same provisions as to licence for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and the residence of the clergy, in the same Act mentioned :

“ And whereas the said archdeaconry of Norwich has no fixed endowment, and the average annual income thereof arising from fees and other emoluments does not exceed the sum of ninety-two pounds :

“ And whereas the Venerable John Bedingfield Collyer was, on the twenty-third day of September last, appointed, and now is Archdeacon of Norwich :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Norwich, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the said archdeaconry of Norwich shall be endowed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, that there shall be paid by us, to the said Venerable John Bedingfield Collyer, Archdeacon of Norwich, and his successors in the said archdeaconry, so long as they shall respectively hold the same, and shall duly reside in the diocese in which the same is or shall be situate, the annual sum of one hundred pounds, on the first day of January in every year; and every such whole yearly payment to such archdeacon shall be made only on production to us of a certificate, under the hand of the bishop for the time being of the diocese in which his archdeaconry is situate, that such archdeacon has duly resided during the preceding year, and a proportionate part of the first such yearly payment, calculated from the day of the date of his appointment to the first day of January last past, shall be forthwith paid to such archdeacon; and that whenever a vacancy in the said archdeaconry shall happen on any other day than the first day of January, the then next yearly payment shall be duly apportioned and paid between and to the archdeacon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the archdeacon succeeding to the archdeaconry so becoming vacant.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Norwich.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 26th day of April 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parishes of Frampton Cotterell and Westerleigh, both in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.
