

one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion, and in such manner, as shall be approved by the like authority :

“ And whereas certain persons have contributed certain sums of money towards providing a church or chapel within the said district of Coalpit Heath, herein recommended to be constituted, and a church or chapel is now in course of erection, by the aid of such monies, within the said district, and is very nearly completed; and it has been agreed by such persons that such church or chapel, when completed, according to certain plans and a specification which have been submitted to us, shall be offered for approval by us, for consecration, as the church or chapel of the said district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and we have satisfied ourselves that the said church or chapel, when so completed, will be fit to be so approved and consecrated :

“ And whereas the principal contributors towards the said church or chapel have, by an instrument in writing under their hands, nominated to us the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, for the time being, as the patron in perpetuity of the said district :

“ We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said district, and, so soon as the same shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, the right of patronage of the church thereof, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate of such district or new parish, as the case may be, shall be wholly assigned to, and absolutely vested in, the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors Bishops of Gloucester and Bristol for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of COAL PIT HEATH, being

“ All that part of the parish of Westerleigh, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, situate on the western and north western side of an imaginary line commencing at the junction of the said parish of Westerleigh with the Bristol and Gloucester Railway at the Yate station (marked a on the map or plan herewith), in the same county and diocese; and thence extending, southward, along the western side of the said railway to the level crossing over the same (marked b as aforesaid); and thence, westward, in a direct line to the eastern angle (marked c as aforesaid) of a field belonging to the lords of the manor of Westerleigh, in the occupation of Charles Gibbs; and thence, westward, in a straight direction across the said field and the public road leading from Nibley to Rodford, to the eastern angle (marked d as aforesaid) of a field called Upper Rye Grass Ground, belonging to the
