

lords of Westerleigh aforesaid, in the occupation of Thomas White, following the boundary of the said field in a south western direction, and of the adjoining one called Lower Rye Grass Ground, to the stream or brook and eastern angle (marked e as aforesaid) of a close of ground called Wood Lease, belonging to the said lords, in the occupation of John Wheeler; and thence along the southern boundaries of that and the adjoining close called Cook's Mead to the eastern angle (marked f as aforesaid) of the Great Orchard of Says Court Farm; and thence along the southern boundary of the said orchard and of a plot called the Wood, adjoining thereto, to Moat Mead, and across such mead and the fields called Great Stuckney and Middle Stuckney, belonging to the said lords of Westerleigh, in the occupation of the said John Wheeler, in a straight direction to the eastern angle (marked g as aforesaid) of a close called Great Ashbury, also belonging to the said lords of Westerleigh, in the occupation of Henry Werrett; and thence along the south eastern side thereof and of a close called Little Thatcham, also belonging to the said lords of Westerleigh, to the point (marked h as aforesaid), being the entrance to the barton of a farm in the occupation of the said Henry Werrett; and thence, southward, along the eastern side of a close called Withey-moor and of several other closes, nearly in a direct line, to the middle of the road or way called Broad-lane; and thence, eastward, along the middle of such lane, as far as the middle of Box-hedge-lane; and thence, southward, and partly towards the east, along the middle of such last-mentioned lane, as far as the middle of the Acton Turville turnpike road; and thence, towards the south west, along the middle of such last-mentioned road, to the boundary of the said parish of Westerleigh; and also all that part of the parish of Frampton Cotterell, in the same county and diocese, situate on the eastern side of an imaginary line along the middle of a certain highway or lane leading from Ivory-hill, in the said parish of Westerleigh, to the village of Frampton, and certain other lanes and public highways, forming the most direct route to Iron Acton, to a point (marked i as aforesaid) where it meets the boundary of the parish of Westerleigh."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the parishes out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and such incumbents and patrons have consented to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the two several registries of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and Gloucester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate
