

“ of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and that such district should be named, “ The Chapelry District of West Butterwick,” and should consist of the township of West Butterwick, with boundaries as follow :

“ The district is bounded on the north by the parish of Althorpe; on the east and south by the river Trent; and on the south west by Kelfield sewer; and on the west and north west by the parish of Belton, as more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green :

“ That banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel :

“ That the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lincoln has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument :

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 26th day of April 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most-Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, viz.

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty’s Commission for building new churches,” beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Gnosall, in the county of Stafford and diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church or chapel of Saint Mary at Moreton, in the said parish, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and that such district should be named, “ The Chapelry District of Moreton,” and should
