Whitehall, May 23, 1845.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, upon the decease of George-Harry late Earl of Stamford and Warrington, the titles and dignities of Earl of Stamford and Warrington devolved upon his grandson and heir, George-Harry now Earl of Stamford and Warrington (a minor), as the only son and heir of the late George-Harry, who was summoned to Parliament as Baron Grey of Groby, whilst living the son and heir apparent of the said George-Harry Earl of Stamford and Warrington, lately deceased, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the sister of the said George-Harry now Earl of Stamford and Warrington cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to her in case her said late father, the said George-Harry Baron Grey of Groby, had survived his father, the said George-Harry late Earl of Stamford and Warrington, and had thereby succeeded to the titles and dignities of Earl of Stamford and Warrington, Her Majesty has been pleased to ordain and declare, that Margaret-Henrietta-Maria Grey (a minor), the only sister of the said George-Harry now Earl of Stamford and Warrington, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if her said late father had succeeded to the said titles and dignities of Earl of Stamford and Warrington.

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 17, 1845.
