Witness my hand this 7th day of June 1845,
Dav. Tho. Willis, Superintendent Registrar.

Preston and Wyre Railway.

WHEREAS a Bill has been introduced into Parliament, to amend the several Acts relating to the Preston and Wyre Railway, Harbourn, and Dock Company, and to enable the said company to make three several branch railways, the plans and sections for which have been deposited, and the notices for which have been given, as required by the Standing Orders of the two Houses of Parliament;

Now notice is hereby given, that it is desired by the parties promoting the said Bill to make alterations in two of the said branch railways, consisting of the two several deviations hereinafter described; that is to say, a deviation of the line of the proposed railway, to be called the Lytham Branch Railway, between a field belonging to Thomas Clifton, Esquire, in the occupation of George Mills, situate in the parish of Lytham, in the county of Lancaster, marked No. 17 in the said plans of the Lytham Branch Railway, so deposited as aforesaid, and a field belonging to the said Thomas Clifton, in the occupation of Ann Postlethwaite, situate in the parish of Kirkham, in the said county of Lancaster, and numbered 29 on the said last-mentioned plans, so deposited as aforesaid, and which deviation extends for two miles through portions of the said several parishes of Lytham and Kirkham, in the said county; and a deviation of the proposed railway, to be called the Lytham Dock Branch Railway, between a field belonging to the said Thomas Clifton, in the occupation of Cornelius Crookall, situate in the said parish of Lytham, marked No. 83 in the said plans of the Lytham Branch Railway, so deposited as aforesaid, and another field, belonging to the said Thomas Clifton, in the occupation of the said Cornelius Crookall, situate in the said parish of Lytham, and numbered 81 on the said plans of the Lytham Branch Railway, so deposited as aforesaid, and which said last-mentioned deviation extends for twelve chains through a portion of the said parish of Lytham; and that provision for such deviations and alterations is intended to be made in the Bill now before Parliament for making the said several branch railways.

And notice is hereby given, that a map or plan and section of the said intended alterations and deviations, on the same scale, and containing the same particulars as the original plan and section, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, was, on the thirtieth day of May instant, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office, at Preston, in the said county; and that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections and book of reference as relates to each of the parishes of Lytham and Kirkham, through which the said deviations and alterations are intended to be made, was, on the thirtieth day of May instant, deposited with the parish clerks of those parishes, respectively, at their respective residences.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to take powers, by the said Bill, for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses for the purpose of such deviations, and for levying tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the proposed railways and works as intended to be altered as aforesaid.—Dated this thirtieth day of May 1845.

T. W. Nelson, Gresham-place, Lombard-street.

Newport and Pontypool Railway.

WHEREAS a Bill has been introduced into Parliament, to authorise the company of proprietors of the Monmouthshire Canal Navigation to make a railway from Newport to Pontypool, and to enlarge the powers of the several Acts relating to the said company, the plans and sections for which have been deposited, and the notices for which have been given, as required by the Standing Orders of the two Houses of Parliament;

Now notice is hereby given, that it is desired by the parties promoting the said Bill to make an alteration in the said railway, consisting of a deviation of the line of the said proposed railway, between a close of pasture land of Edward Harris Phillips, Esquire, in the parish of Panteague, in the county of Monmouth, marked number 51 on the said plans so deposited as aforesaid, and a close of pasture land of Sir Charles Morgan, Baronet, in lease to and occupied by Capel Hanbury Leigh, Esquire, situate in the same parish of Panteague, and numbered 172 on the said plans so deposited as aforesaid, and which deviation extends for one mile and three furlongs through portions of the several parishes of Panteague and Llanvrechva Upper, in the said county; and that provision for such deviation and alteration is intended to be made in the Bill now before Parliament for making the said railway.

And notice is hereby given, that a map or plan and section of the said intended alteration and deviation, on the same scale, and containing the same particulars as the original plan and section, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands was, on the twenty-seventh day of May instant, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Monmouth, at his office, at Usk; and that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections and book of reference as relates to each of the parishes of Panteague and Llanvrechva Upper, through which the said deviation and alteration is intended to be made, was, on the twenty-ninth day of May instant, deposited with the parish clerks of those parishes, respectively, at their respective residences.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to take powers, by the said Bill, for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses for the purpose of such deviation, and for levying tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the proposed railway and works as intended to be altered as aforesaid.—Dated this twenty-ninth day of May 1845.

Henry Mostyn, Solicitor for the Bill.
