“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of CHRIST CHURCH, BERMONDSEY, being—

“ All that part of the district of Saint James, in the parish of Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, bounded as follows; that is to say, on the north, by the river Thames; on the east and south east, by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) on the southern bank of the said river at East-lane-stairs, and opposite to the middle of East-lane; and thence extending southward, along the middle of such lane, as far as the middle of Neckinger-road; and thence towards the south west, along the middle of such road, as far as the boundary of the parochial district of Saint Mary Magdalene, Bermondsey, in the same county and diocese; and on the west, by such last-mentioned district and the parish of Saint John, Horsleydown, in the same county and diocese.”

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the church of the parish and of the church or chapel of the district out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, and one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and no objections have been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

A 2

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of June 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parishes of Ryton and Winlaton, in the county and diocese of Durham.

“ Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any
