“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of SAINT CUTHBERT, STELLA, being—

“ All that part of the parish of Ryton, in the county and diocese of Durham, comprised within the township of Stella, and all that part of the township of Winlaton, in the parish of Winlaton, in the same county and diocese, situate on the northern side of an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan herewith) at the southern angle of the said township of Stella, near Haggerston's mill; and thence extending eastward, and partly towards the north east, along the middle of the Mill-lane, and of Nipper's Wood-lane, and Winlaton West-lane, as far as the middle of the public road leading from Winlaton to Blydon (marked b as aforesaid); and thence towards the north east, along the middle of such last-mentioned road, as far as the middle of the Blydon main colliery waggon way (marked c as aforesaid); and thence in the same direction, along the middle of such waggon way, as far as the middle of the Hexham south turnpike road (marked d as aforesaid); and thence towards the south east, along the middle of such last-mentioned road, to a point (marked e as aforesaid) opposite to the angle formed by the boundary wall of Axwell-park, near a certain house or cottage, now occupied by colliery workmen in the employ of George Hepple Ramsay, Esquire, and being the most northern of a group sometimes known by the name of the “ Old Engine Cottages;” and thence first towards the south west, along such boundary wall, to the lodge at the eastern angle of the said park, near the river Derwent (marked f as aforesaid); and thence eastward in a straight line with the southern corner of the Derwent-bridge toll bar-house, across the said river, as far as the middle of the Hexham south turnpike road aforesaid (marked g as aforesaid); and thence towards the south east, along the middle of such last-mentioned road, as far as the ancient boundary between the said parish of Winlaton and the parish of Whickham, in the said county and diocese (marked h as aforesaid).”

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patron of the churches of the parishes out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and such incumbents and patron have respectively consented to the said scheme :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Westminster, August 4, 1845.
