

down the middle of that road as far as Norland-lane, and on the west by proceeding in a northerly direction, along the middle of Norland-lane aforesaid, until it reaches the premises occupied by William Sherman, the property of Benjamin Edward Hall, Esq. whence it proceeds in an easterly direction, along and parallel with the south side of the said last-mentioned premises, until it reaches the old open sewer and a wooden fence, which fence forms the western boundary of the estate of James Weller Ladbrooke, Esq. called the Kensington-park Estate, and the south westerly boundary of the estate of St. Quentin, Esq. and then proceeds along the said fence to the boundary line which divides the parish of Kensington from the parish of Hammersmith, and then proceeds along the said boundary line as far as the consolidated chapelry district of Saint John, Kensall-green, as is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow :

“ That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Charles James Lord Bishop of London has signed and sealed this present instrument :

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division and assignment be accordingly made and carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
