and all other places (if any) in the county of Oxford (excepting the corporate town of Henley-upon-Thames), which are situated southward or south eastward of the river Thames :”

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that such county shall be divided into four districts for the purposes of the said Act, to be called by the several and respective names following, that is to say; No. 1, to be called “the Central District,” comprising the parishes and places before named in the said petition, and applicable to that district; No. 2, to be called “the Northern District,” comprising the parishes and places before named in the said petition, and applicable to that district; No. 3, to be called “the Western District,” comprising the parishes and places before named in the said petition, and applicable to that district; and No. 4, to be called “the Southern District,” comprising the parishes and places before named in the said petition, and applicable to that district.

And it is hereby further declared, ordered, directed, and determined, that the courts to be holden for the purpose of the election of any coroner, of any one or more of the said districts, respectively, when and as often as the same shall become necessary under the provisions of the said recited Act, shall be as follows, that is to say, for No. 1, the “Central District”, to be holden at Oxford, and the poll to be taken there; for

No. 2, the “Northern District,” to be holden at Deddington, and the poll to be taken there; for No. 3, the “Western District,” to be holden at Witney, and the poll to be taken there; and for No. 4, the “Southern District,” to be holden at Nettlebed, and the poll to be taken there.

And it is hereby also further declared, ordered, and directed, that this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels of less burthen than sixty tons are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act for the amendment of the law respecting pilots and pilotage, and also for the better preservation of floating lights, buoys, and beacons,” it is enacted, that the several Acts therein recited, and all and every the clauses, provisions, powers, penalties, forfeitures, matters, and things relating as well to pilots appointed by the Corporation of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, as to pilots of the Fellowship of Dover, Deal, or the Isle of Thanet, and to the pilotage by and regulation of all such pilots as aforesaid, and also as to the conduct of all persons in matters of pilotage within the jurisdiction of the said Cor-
