AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for granting to Her Majesty, for a term to be limited, certain duties on sugar imported into the United Kingdom," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that, from and after the fourteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, there should be charged, amongst other duties of Customs, the following, that is to say:

On sugar, the growth and produce of China, Java, or Manilla, or of any foreign country, the sugars of which Her Majesty in Council shall have declared, or may hereafter declare, to be admissible as not being the produce of slave labour, and which shall be imported into the United Kingdom either from the country of its growth or from some British possession, having first been imported into such British possession from the country of its growth, the duties following, that is to say:

White clayed sugar, or sugar rendered by any process equal in quality to white clayed, not being refined, for every hundred weight	£.	s.	d.
Brown sugar, being Muscovado or clayed, or any other sugar, not being equal in quality to white clayed, for every hundred weight			1 3 4

And whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare, with respect to any foreign country or countries, that it having appeared to Her Majesty, upon sufficient evidence, that the sugars of such country or countries are not the produce of slave labour, such sugars shall (from and after a day to be named in such Order) be deemed and taken not to be the produce of slave labour; and, from and after the day so to be named in such Order, the brown, Muscovado, or clayed sugar (not being refined), of the country or countries mentioned in such Order, shall be admissible to entry for home consumption at the said respective duties of one pound eight shillings, or of one pound three shillings and four pence, per hundred weight respectively, in like manner as sugar the growth and produce of China, Java, and Manilla:

And whereas it has appeared to Her Majesty, upon sufficient evidence, that the sugars of Siam are not the produce of slave labour:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, the sugars of Siam shall be deemed and taken not to be the produce of slave labour:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
