Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act, of the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that such county shall be divided into three districts, for the purposes of the said Act, to be called by the several and respective names following, that is to say, No. 1, comprising the places and parishes before named and appropriated to that peculiar district, to be called the Northern District; No. 2, comprizing the places and parishes before named and appropriated to that peculiar district, to be called the South Eastern District; and No. 3, comprising the places and parishes before named and appropriated to that peculiar district, to be called the Western District.

And it is hereby further declared, ordered, directed, and determined, that the courts to be holden for the purpose of the election of any coroners of any one or more of the said districts, respectively, when and as often as the same shall become necessary, under the provisions of the said recited Act, shall be as follows, that is to say, for No. 1, the Northern District, to be holden at Axbridge aforesaid, and the poll to be taken there; for No. 2, the South Eastern District, to be holden at Castle Carey aforesaid, and the poll to be taken there; for No. 3, the Western District, to be holden at Taunton aforesaid, and the poll to be taken there.

And it is hereby also further declared, ordered, and directed, that this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the district of Saint George, Leeds, in the parish of Leeds, and out of the said parish, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or
