

NOTICE is hereby given, that a building, named the Church of our Immaculate Lady, situated at Stratton-place, in the parish of Budock, in the county of Cornwall, in the district of Falmouth union, being a building licenced and used for public religious worship as a Roman Catholic Chapel exclusively, was, on the 25th day of September 1845, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 30th day of September 1845,

W. J. Genn, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Company, styled the British Bank of Smyrna, has applied, by petition, to Her Majesty in Council, for a charter of incorporation; and that such petition, together with a copy of the proposed charter, has been referred to the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations.—Dated this 24th day of September 1845.

Chester, Toulmin, and Chester, Staple-inn, Solicitors to the said Company.

Direct London and Portsmouth Railway.

Notice of Intention to present Petition for Re-introduction of Bill in the ensuing Session.

WHEREAS a Bill was depending in the Right Honourable the House of Lords at the close of the last session, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the Croydon and Epsom Railway, at Epsom, to the town of Portsmouth, to be called the Direct London and Portsmouth Railway:"

And whereas, in compliance with the Standing Orders of Parliament, notices were duly given, in the month of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, of the intention to apply to Parliament in the said last session for such Bill, which notices contain the names of the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places from, in, through, or into which the said railway is intended to pass, and also stated the time and place of deposit of the plans and sections of the said railway, and of the books of reference thereto, at the offices of the several Clerks of the Peace of the several counties, and with the parish clerks of the several parishes through which such railway would be made:

And whereas such plans, sections, and books of reference were duly deposited at the offices of the several Clerks of the Peace following, viz. for the county of Surrey, at Lambeth; for the county of Sussex, at Lewes; and for the county of Southampton, at Winchester, on or before the thirtieth November one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and with the parish clerks of such several parishes on or before the thirty-first December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four:

A 2

Notice is hereby given, that it is the intention of the promoters of the said Bill to present a petition for the re-introduction of such Bill in the ensuing session, and to proceed with the same as authorized by the resolutions of both Houses of Parliament, with respect to Bills pending in either House at the close of the last session.—Dated this first day of October 1845.

Burchell, Kilgour, and Parson, Parliament-street, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to obtain an Act of Parliament, to authorize and empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, to form and make a royal park; and for that purpose to take and use certain lands or hereditaments, containing about three hundred and thirty acres, with the several houses and buildings thereon, situate in the parish of St. Mary, Battersea, in the county of Surrey, bounded on the north by the river Thames; on the south by the public road leading from Nine Elms to Wandsworth; on the east by land and wharfs, and a bridge over the mill stream belonging to Thomas Ponton, Esq.; on the west in part by land and buildings; belonging to the Battersea-bridge Company, in other part by gardens attached to houses belonging to William Howey, Esq. and Mr. Charles Chabot, in other part by land late belonging to J. C. Constable, Esq. but now to Mr. Morrison, in other part by land late belonging to J. S. S. Smith, Esq. but now to Messrs. Tillet, Pariss, and Sturdy, in other part by the Battersea-bridge-road, in other part by buildings and land belonging to the Battersea-bridge Company and Mr. Daniel Board, and in other part by a public road leading from Surrey-lane to the Wandsworth-road aforesaid, between Upper and Lower Rowditch; and to authorize and empower the said Commissioners to stop up, divert, widen, or alter all or any of the roads, ways, paths, and passages, which now lead into, upon, through, across, or over any part or parts of the before-mentioned lands and hereditaments intended to form the site of the said park, in the parish aforesaid; and to set out and make such other roads, ways, paths, or passages, in lieu of the present, as to the said Commissioners may seem proper and necessary, and to make approaches to the said park, or intended park.

And in such Bill powers will be contained for the compulsory purchase of all such lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments, as may be necessary for carrying the several purposes aforesaid into effect.—Dated this 8th day of October 1845.

By order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings.

Pemberton, Crawley, and Gardiner, Solicitors, Board of Woods, &c. 20, Whitehall-place, Westminster.
