And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the before-mentioned parishes, from, in, through, or into which the said intended railway and branch or side railways, and works, or any part thereof, is intended to be made or maintained, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited for public inspection with the parish clerk of each of such several parishes respectively, at their respective residences.

Dated this third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five.

Johnston, Farquhar, and Leech, 65, Moorgate Street, London, Solicitors for the Bill.

G. and T. W. Webster, 26, Great George Street, Westminster, Parliamentary Agents.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for deepening, improving, cleansing, and regulating the Harbour of Sutton Pool, within the port of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, parcel of the duchy of Cornwall, and situate within the parishes of Saint Andrew and Charles the Martyr, and certain extra-parochial lands adjoining or near to the said parishes within the borough of Plymouth, in the said county, and for converting the same into a basin or dock for the reception of ships and other vessels, and for vesting the same in a Company hereinafter mentioned.

And it is intended to take powers by the said Act to make, erect, and construct an embankment across the entrance of the said harbour, and also to alter, vary, enlarge, or diminish the said harbour of Sutton Pool, and the shores, quays, wharfs, and margin thereof, with all necessary piers, jetties, locks, waterways, quays, buttresses, and other works, for admitting, penning up, or letting out the water from such harbour aforesaid; and also to make, erect, and construct a dock or docks to receive ships, barges, or other vessels, together with proper basins, piers, sluices, drains, cuts, channels, locks, feeders, wharfs, warehouses, approaches, avenues, and other works, erections and conveniences, connected therewith or adjoining thereto, as shown and defined on the plan and section thereof hereinafter mentioned, and to take, use, and alter, widen and divert certain sewers, drains, and water-courses running through the said parishes of Saint Andrew and Charles the Martyr, into Sutton Pool aforesaid, and now vested in the commissioners acting under a certain Act of Parliament passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for better paving, lighting, cleansing, watering, and improving the town and borough of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and for regulating the police thereof, and for removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances therein."

And it is intended to take powers by the said Act to light the said harbour, dock, or docks with gas, and to construct and maintain a footpath and carriage way, with every necessary work connected therewith, over and along the said embankment.

And it is also intended to take powers by the said Act for the compulsory purchase of lands and hereditaments within the said several parishes and places aforesaid necessary for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, and to extinguish and vary all rights, tolls, dues, privileges, and exemptions connected therewith, which may in any manner affect or interfere with the said intended works, or any of them, and to take power to raise and borrow money for the purchase of the same, and for defraying the expenses of obtaining the said Act, and of carrying the same into execution.

And it is also intended to take powers by the said Act to alter, deepen, widen, and improve all that part of the said port and harbour of Plymouth as lies between Sutton Pool on the one side, and Fisher's Nose and Queen Ann's Battery on the other side, and to lay down buoys, mooring chains, and other facilities for the navigation of the same; also to use, employ, or let for hire steam-tugs or towing-vessels for the use of any vessel or vessels entering or using the creek, docks, or harbour.

And it is also intended by the said Act to take authority to levy tolls, rates, and duties on all ships, barges, lighters, and other vessels navigating or using the said intended works, improvements, and premises, or the said steam-tugs or towing-vessels, and on all goods, wares, and merchandize shipped, unshipped, or landed within or on the said wharfs, quays, or works, or any of them, and also upon goods, cattle, and passengers using, going, or carried on or over the said intended embankment, and to alter the several rates, tolls, and duties now taken under the authority of the several Acts of Parliament hereinafter mentioned, and to extinguish all exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties.

And it is also intended by the said Act to take authority to make bye-laws, rules, and regulations for the good government of all such vessels, and of the said docks, harbour, creek, streams, and premises, and for the preventing the casting of rubbish or ballast into the said docks or harbour, channel, and premises.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Act to incorporate the several persons therein mentioned, and other persons, as a Company, for carrying into effect all or any of the purposes aforesaid.

And notice is hereby given, that the several plans and sections and books of reference thereto required by the Standing Orders of Parliament will be deposited in pursuance of such Standing Orders at the
