

consent of the several owners, lessees or occupiers respectively, through whose lands the same will pass, convenient approaches to or from the said cemetery or burial ground, and to widen, alter, and improve, with such consent as aforesaid, any existing approaches thereto.

And notice is hereby given, that a plan, section, and book of reference, with duplicate thereof descriptive of the said intended works, will on or before the thirtieth day of November, instant, be deposited with the clerk of the peace of the county of Devon, at his office at Exeter, and that a copy of so much of the said plans, section, and book of reference, as relates to each of the said parishes respectively, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.

Dated this first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five.

Woolcombe, Square, Stephens and France,
Plymouth, Solicitors for the Bill.
Gregory, Faulkner, Gregory, and Skir-row, 1, Bedford Row, London, Parliamentary Agents.

Liverpool Improvement.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to repeal, alter, or amend the provisions of an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the better paving and sewerage of the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and for settling the boundaries between the said town and the township of Kirkdale, and parts of the townships of Everton and West Derby," and of another Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act relating to the paving and sewerage of the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for better paving and improving the streets and highways within the extra-parochial place of Toxteth Park, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and for the sewerage of certain parts of the said place," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the commissioners for paving and sewerage of the town of Liverpool more effectually, to water the streets of the said town, and to provide water for extinguishing fires therein," and to transfer to and vest in the council of the borough of Liverpool all the powers by the said Acts, or any of them, vested in the commissioners thereby appointed, so far as such powers are or can be exercised within the borough of Liverpool, and to extend the provisions of the said recited Acts respectively to the townships of Everton and Kirkdale, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and to that portion of the township of West Derby, in the said county, which is within the said borough of Liverpool, and to enable the said council to exercise the said powers within the said borough, or otherwise to enable the said council effectually to pave, flag, sewer, drain, cleanse, supply with water, and improve the said borough of Liverpool, and for those purposes to confer upon the said council powers for the purchase of lands, buildings, houses, and other hereditaments, by compulsion or agreement, and to levy rates in respect of the several objects aforesaid, and to alter the rates by the said Acts, or any of them, authorized to be levied, and to confer certain exemptions from such rates respectively: and in the Act or Acts so to be applied for, it is proposed to explain, amend, and enlarge some of the provisions of an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the promotion of the health of the inhabitants of the borough of Liverpool, and the better regulation of buildings in the said borough:" and also of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the improvement, good government, and police regulation of the borough of Liverpool," and especially, such provisions in the last-mentioned Act as relate to the slaughtering of beasts and cattle, and the regulation of slaughter houses, and to take powers to prevent the slaughtering of beasts and cattle for wholesale purposes, save in such place or places as shall be appointed by the council for that purpose, and to take further powers for the prevention of nuisances and annoyances within the borough, and particularly to prevent the nuisance of smoke from manufactories and works within the borough, and from steam vessels plying or navigating on the river Mersey.

And it is further proposed to amend and extend the provisions in the said last mentioned Act contained, with respect to the rate thereby authorized to be levied for the purposes of a fire police, and to alter such rate, and also to amend, enlarge, extend, or repeal the provisions with respect to the rates for lighting and cleansing the said borough, contained in the said last mentioned Act and in an Act for, amongst other purposes, lighting and cleansing the town of Liverpool, passed in the twenty-first year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, and to alter such last mentioned rates, and to enable the said council to levy other rates for the said purposes or any of them upon the property within every part of the said borough, and to provide that all rates by any of the before-mentioned Acts, or by the proposed Act or Acts authorized to be levied, be laid upon and paid by the owners of all property the full annual value of which shall not exceed ten pounds, or which shall be let to monthly or weekly tenants, or in separate apartments; and further, to provide for the registering of all houses within the borough rated to the relief of the poor, at a sum not exceeding fifteen pounds, and used as lodging houses, and to enable the council to limit the number of lodgers to be received into any such house, and to make regulations regarding health, cleanliness, and ventilation therein.

And it is also proposed by the Act or Acts so