

after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as hereinafter provided:

“And whereas the said chapelry of Colne is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such chapelry hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bird Bishop of Chester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said chapelry of Colne, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “The District of Great Marsden.”

“And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“The district of GREAT MARSDEN, being—

“All that part of the parochial chapelry of Colne, in the parish of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, comprising the whole township of Great Marsden, and such part of the township of Colne as is situate on the south western side of an imaginary line extending towards the north west, from a point (marked a on the map or plan herewith) on the boundary between the said townships of Colne and Great Marsden, near the south eastern corner of a certain field called Horsefield, adjoining Pike Laith-house, along the eastern fence or boundary of such field, and of another field called Great Meadow, situate on the north west thereof, and across Colne Water at a certain point (marked b as aforesaid) where it is crossed by a certain occupation road near the northern corner of such last-mentioned field, on the north western side of an imaginary line extending towards the north east from such last-mentioned point, along the northern bank of Colne Water aforesaid, as far as the weir or dam (marked c as aforesaid) belonging to the corn mill called the King's-mill, and on the southern side of an imaginary straight line extending thence westward, to the north eastern corner of a certain out-house or barn (marked d as aforesaid), the joint property of Robert Midgley, Esq., of Colne, and William Sagar, Esq., of Southfield, and now in the occupation of James Houghton situate at the northern end or top of Colne Waterside, in the said township of Colne, and of another imaginary line extending thence, also westward, and in a straight direction with the extreme northern corner of the factory and premises called Walk Cotton-factory (marked e as aforesaid), as far as the boundary between the said townships.”
