NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, and enlarge, or to repeal, some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixteenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable the trustees of certain charity lands, belonging to the poor of Salford, in the county palatine of Lancaster, to grant building leases thereof."

And it is intended, by such Act or Acts, to incorporate the trustees of the said charity lands, and to authorize and empower the said trustees to accept surrenders of leases of the said charity lands, situate within the parish of Manchester, in the said county palatine of Lancaster, either for the purpose of renewing such leases or otherwise, upon such terms, whether by way of annual charge upon the said charity lands or for a sum of money in gross or otherwise, as may be agreed upon between the said trustees and the persons in whom such leases may be vested.

And it is intended, by the said Act or Acts, to authorize and empower the trustees for the time being of the said charity lands to demise or lease, for any term or number of years whatsoever, or to

And it is also intended, by the said Act or Acts, to incorporate the trustees of the estates situate in the parish of Manchester aforesaid, devised by the will of Humphrey Booth, late of Salford aforesaid, deceased, bearing date the 3d day of March 1672 (the proceeds of which estates are to be employed towards all repairs of the chapel of Salford, and, in case there should be any overplus, the same is to be distributed amongst the poor of Salford, in the same way as the proceeds of the charity lands comprised in the said Act of the sixteenth George the Third), and to give to the last-mentioned trustees all and every the powers, authorities and privileges hereinbefore-mentioned, with respect to the trustees of the charity lands comprised in the said Act of the sixteenth George the Third.

And, in the said intended Act or Acts, provision will also be made for substituting for the persons appointed to distribute the funds arising from each of the said charity lands and estates respectively, or some of such persons, other persons or person. And, in the said intended Act or Acts, provision will also be made for enabling incapacitated or other persons to join and concur in any surrenders of any of the said charity lands and estates respectively (whether for the purpose of renewal or otherwise), and (if for renewal) in any such renewal, and for dispensing with the necessity for the sublessees of any leases so surrendered, joining or concurring in such surrenders for the purpose of renewal; and for granting to the trustees for the time being of each of the said charity lands and estates respectively, all other necessary and proper powers for facilitating the surrender (whether for the purpose of renewal or otherwise) and the renewal of leases of such charity lands and estates respectively, and for leasing and conveying the same lands and estates respectively, and for all other the purposes aforesaid.
