

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections describing the line and levels of the said intended railway, and the works connected therewith, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers, of the lands, will, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the respective offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the county of Wilts, at Wilton, in the said county; for the county of Berks, at Abingdon, in the said county; for the county of Southampton, at Winchester, in the said county; and for the county of Surrey, at Lambeth; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the parishes aforesaid, in or through which the said railway will pass or be situate, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

Dated this sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five.

T. B. and W. Merriman, Burchell, Kilgour, and Parson.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act for widening, deepening, embanking, straightening, and otherwise improving such part of the course or channel of the River Welland, situate within the several parishes of Spalding, Pinchbeck, Surfleet, and Weston, in the county of Lincoln, as extends from the High-bridge in the town of Spalding to the New Channel, heretofore made below or seaward of a certain place in the parishes of Spalding, Surfleet, and Pinchbeck, or one of them, called the Reservoir; and for diverting the present course or channel of the said river by making a new cut or channel from and out of the north-western side of the said river, in the parish of Pinchbeck, through lands in the same parish to and into a certain drain called Vernatt's Drain, at a point in the same parish about eight hundred yards above the outfall of the said drain into the said river; and for adopting as and for the future course or channel of the said river such part of the said Vernatt's Drain as lies between the said intended place of entrance therein of the said intended new cut or channel and the said River Welland at the said outfall thereinto of the said Vernatt's Drain, in lieu of the present course or channel of the said river between the places aforesaid; and for stopping up or discontinuing, as such course or channel, the present course or channel of the said river between the places aforesaid, and vesting the same in the trustees of the River Welland; and also for widening, deepening, embanking, and improving such part of the said Vernatt's Drain as lies between the places aforesaid, and so intended to be adopted as the future course or channel of the said river; and for making all such cuts, channels, openings, deepening, embankments, and works within the parishes aforesaid, and in certain lands in the parishes of Spalding and Surfleet respectively, being townlands or lands held in trust for the poor of the said parishes respectively, as shall be requisite for the improvement and security of the navigation of the said River Welland, between the town of Spalding and the New Channel heretofore made below the said place called the Reservoir as aforesaid. And it is intended by the said Bill and Act, to obtain powers for the compulsory purchase of all such lands, and houses or buildings, and drains, and watercourses within the several parishes aforesaid, and the said townlands, as will be required for effecting the several purposes aforesaid.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill and Act to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for explaining, amending, and rendering more effectual an Act of His late Majesty for improving the outfall of the River Welland, in the county of Lincoln;" and of an Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to increase the tonnage rates and duties granted by an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Fourth, for improving the outfall of the River Welland, in the county of Lincoln, and to alter and enlarge the powers of the said Act;" and of an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for transferring to the Trustees of the River Welland, in the county of Lincoln, certain dues payable in respect of vessels using the said river, part of the port and harbour of Boston, and their cargoes, for better effecting improvements authorized by a former Act; and for amending several Acts relating to the same."

And it is also intended to repeal such parts of the said several Acts as provide for direct limit or regulate the application of the monies arising or receivable under the same respectively; and to make provision for amalgamating such monies into one fund, and for the due application thereof; and also to repeal so much of the said Act of the fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty as limits, or as operates to limit, any period or time at which any monies may be in future borrowed; and also to repeal or remodel others of the provisions and regulations of the said last-mentioned Act, and the several Acts therein respectively recited or mentioned.

And it is also intended to alter and increase the tonnage and navigation dues granted by the said several recited Acts.

And it is also intended to obtain powers for borrowing money on the credit of the monies arising under all or any of the said three recited Acts and the intended Act, to such amount above the sums authorized by the said Acts to be borrowed as will be limited by the said intended Act.

And notice is also hereby given, that a plan and section will be deposited for public inspection at the office of the clerk of the peace for the parts of Holland, in the county of Lincoln, at Spalding aforesaid, on or before thirtieth day of November instant, describing the line or situation of the intended works, and the limits of the proposed power of deviation therefrom, and the lands in or through which the works are to be made, together with a book of reference containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and
