Bath Water-Works.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to remove and regulate the public markets in the city of Bath, for widening certain streets, ways, and passages within the said city, and the liberties and precincts thereof, and for opening certain new streets and ways within the same, for better paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and regulating the streets, lanes, ways, and passages, there to remove all nuisances and obstructions therein, and to prevent the same for the future, and for better supplying the inhabitants of the said city, liberties, and precincts with water," so far as the same relates to the supply of water to the inhabitants of the city and borough of Bath.

And notice is hereby further given, that in the said Act it is intended to apply for power to make and maintain certain reservoirs, aqueducts, and other works and conveniences, and to obtain a supply of water from certain springs and streams, for the purpose of affording a better and more effectual supply of water to the inhabitants of the said city and borough, and the several parishes and places within which the aforesaid works, or any of them, will be situated, which said reservoirs, aqueducts, and other works and conveniences, and also the said springs and streams are or will be situate in, or will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Woolley, Swainswick, Bathampton, Bathwick, Batheaston, Charlcombe, and Walcot, or some of them, all in the county of Somerset; and in the said Act power will be applied for to deviate from the line or lines laid down on the plans hereinafter mentioned, to the extent thereon defined, and to vary or alter all such turnpike roads, parish roads, and other highways, streams, canals, and aqueducts within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to vary or alter for the purposes of such works, or any of them; and in the said Act provision will also be made for levying and collecting rates or rents in respect of such supply of water, and also for the powers usually conferred for the compulsory purchase of the lands, houses, water, and other property to be described upon the said plans hereinafter mentioned or referred to, and also for power to vary or extinguish all rights or privileges in any manner connected with the said lands, houses, water, and other property.

And further notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the before-mentioned reservoirs, aqueducts, and other works, describing the line and levels thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees and occupiers of the lands, houses, waters, and other property required to be taken for the purposes of the same, will, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Somerset, at Taunton; and on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to the said several parishes within which the said works or any of them will be made, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to defray the expenses of effecting the several purposes aforesaid out of the borough rate of the said city and borough, or out of money to be raised on the credit of the same.

Dated this eleventh day of November, 1845

P. George, Town Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, and enlarge or to repeal some of the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from Newcastle upon Tyne to Berwick upon Tweed, with Branches therefrom, to be called The Newcastle and Berwick Railway;" and it is intended by the said Act or Acts so to be applied for to enable the Newcastle and Berwick Railway Company incorporated by the said recited Act to make and maintain the branch railways following, or one of them, or some part or parts thereof, together with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and approaches thereto respectively, that is to say, a branch railway from and out of the Blyth Branch of the said Newcastle and Berwick Railway, commencing at or near a point marked A on the plans hereinafter mentioned, at or near a place where the said Blyth Branch crosses the turnpike road from Morpeth to North Shields, in the township and chapelry of Horton and parish of Woodhorn, in the county of Northumberland, thence passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, chapelries, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Horton, Woodhorn, Bebside, Cowpen, Blyth, and Bedlington, all in the county of Northumberland, and terminating at or
