West London Railway Extension.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act or Acts to authorize the formation and maintenance of a railway or railways, with all proper works, wharfs, cuts, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, in extension of the West London Railway, commencing by a junction with the last-mentioned railway at or near the termination thereof, in the parishes of Saint Mary Abbot Kensington, Hammersmith, and Fulham, or one of them, in the county of Middlesex, and terminating at or near the bank of the River Thames, in or near to the Fulham Town Meadows, in the parish of Fulham, in the same county, which said intended railway or railways and works connected therewith, will pass from, in, through, or into, or be situate within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Willesden, Acton, Hammersmith, Saint Mary Abbott Kensington, Saint Luke Chelsea, and Fulham, in the county of Middlesex.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act or Acts to take powers to make and maintain a new line of railway commencing from or from near the point of junction of the West London Railway with the London and Birmingham Railway, in the parishes of Hammersmith and Fulham aforesaid, or one of them, and terminating by a junction with the West London Railway near to the south end of a certain place or district called Wormwood Scrubs, in the parishes of Hammersmith, Fulham, and Saint Mary Abbot Kensington, or some or one of them, in the county of Middlesex, which said intended new line of railway will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Hammersmith, Acton, Willesden, Wormwood Scrubs, Fulham, and Saint Mary Abbot Kensington, or some or one of them, in the county of Middlesex; and also to alter and vary so much of the line of the said West London Railway which is situated in the said several parishes, or either of them, between the points of commencement and junction hereinbefore specified, which it may be necessary to vary and alter, and to abandon such part or parts of the said West London Railway as may become useless and unnecessary in consequence of any such alteration and variation.

And it is also intended by such Act or Acts to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads and highways, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers within the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them, which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert, by reason of the construction of the said intended works, or any of them.

And it is also intended by such Act or Acts to take powers for the purchase of lands, by compulsion or agreement for the purposes thereof, and for levying tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use thereof, and to grant certain exemptions from such tolls, rates, and duties.

And it is further intended by such Act or Acts to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands proposed to be purchased or taken for the purposes of the said undertaking, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use thereof, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended by such Act or Acts to enable the London and Birmingham Railway Company and the Great Western Railway Company, or either of them, to carry into effect the said proposed works, or any part or parts thereof, and to raise such additional capital as may be necessary.

And it is also intended by such Act or Acts to alter, amend, and enlarge, or to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament relating to the said West London Railway, under that name, or under the name of the Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway, passed respectively in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and in the eighth year of the same reign.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps or plans and sections of the said intended works and of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office in Clerkenwell, in
