

Vienna, July 19. The Elector of Bavaria arrived here on Sunday last with a very magnificent Train; The Emperor received him at his Landing; The Cannon was discharged round the Town, and the Garison and Burgheis were in Arms. His Imperial Majesty and his Electoral Highness went directly to the Augustins Church, whither the young Archdutchess was brought presently after by the Empress and the Empress Dowager; They were Married by the Bishop of Colonitz; After which the Cannon was again discharged round the Town, and their Highnesses were conducted to the Palace, where they supped publicly with their Imperial Majesties, the Ambassadors of Spain and Venice sitting at the same Table. The Cannon was discharged the third time, and the Palace and almost all the Houses in the Town were illuminated with Flambeaux and Torches, accompanied with all other expressions of publick Joy. His Electoral Highness intends to go the next week to the Siege of Newbeusel, which advances very successfully. The Imperial Army now before that place, is composed of above 50000 men, as good Troops as can be seen, and will be very suddenly reinforced with those of Cologne, Franconia, and the Upper Rhin, which will make 15000 men more, besides 10000 Hungarians, which will joyn the Army if there be occasion. The advices we have of the strength of the Enemies Army do very much differ, some say they are between 40 and 50000, and others reckon them at 70000.

Ratisbonne, July 15. Part of the Troops of the Circle of Franconia are arrived here, and the rest are expected to morrow. The Regiment of Horse commanded by the Count de Furstemberg, is likewise on its march towards Hungary. The Letters from the Imperial Camp tell us, they opened their Trenches the 11th Instant at night, and the next day began to raise their Batteries; That the besieged had made a Sallie, in which a Turkish Officer, who commands next the Bassa in the Town, was wounded; Some Persons of Quality have been likewise wounded on the side of the Christians.

Cologne, July 20. The Electoral Prince Palatin and the Archdutchess his Wife arrived last night at Mulheim with a Train of about 200 Persons; Their Highnesses do not intend to come into this City, but will pass by in the Yaths which the Elector of Mentz hath sent to attend them; They will be this night at a place about a mile and half from hence, and will dine to morrow at Wesselin, where the Elector of Cologne intends to meet them, and from thence to accompany them to Bon. Great preparations are making for their reception at Coblentz and Mentz. It's said that the Electoral Prince will stay in the Palatinate, while the Archdutchess goes to the Baths of Austria.

Brussels, July 27. Don Francisco Antonio d'Agurto our present Governor, is gone for Flanders to visit the Garisons in that Province. The Nations of this City being assembled to consent to the Present of 25000 Florins which is usually given to a new Governor, his Excellency sent to acquaint them that his Catholick Majesty hath named the Duke de Villa Hermosa to be Governor General of these Countries, and therefore desired them not to proceed in that matter at present. The last Letters from Vienna are of the 15th Instant; They tell us that on the 10th the Turks made a Sally out of Newbeusel with Five hundred men, but were repulged; That on our side the Prince de Commercy, the Prince de Wirtemberg and the Baron de Rosencrans were dangerously wounded; That the 11th the Trenches were opened; he besieged fired their Cannon, with several Volleys of small shot, but did little execution.

Brussels, August 1. The Letters from Vienna of the 19th past say, That the day before a great Convoy parted from thence with Provisions and Ammunition for the Imperial Army before Newbeusel; From whence they had an account that the Besiegers were advanced to the Ditch; That the 16th they began to batter the place with 18 Peices of Cannon, and that in two or three days another Battery of 26 Peices would be finished. They write from Upper Hungary that General Schultz having invested Count Teckeley in one of his Castles, he escaped from thence in the night and retired to Poday, and from thence fled to the Castle of Zatwar. And that General Schultz was thereupon returned before Esperies, resolving to renew the Siege of that place.

Whitehall, July 24. The King having been informed that the Sieur Hieronimo Nunez de Costa Agent for the King of Portugal in Holland, had paid the Money for the Ship which the late Duke of Monmouth came over to England in; And that the Powder and Arms laden, among other Merchandizes by the said Sieur de Costa and Partners in a Ship called Staw, bound for the Tercera Islands, which was brought into Plimouth by one of His Majesties Ships, were for the Assistance of the Rebels, his Majesty ordered Mr. Skelton His Envoy Extraordinary to the States General of the United Provinces to examine the matter, which he having done, and found the same to be false, invented by the Enemies of the said Sieur de Costa, His Majesty, upon his report, commanded Mr. Skelton to declare to the Sieur de Costa in His Name, that he was very well satisfied with his proceeding; And that He had given Orders that the Powder and Arms taken out of the said Ship the Staw, should be restored to him, or the value thereof paid.
