AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of December 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An "Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches," beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Martock, in the county of Somerset, and within the diocese of Bath and Wells, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church or chapel called Trinity Chapel, situate at Ash, in the said parish of Martock, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Ash," with boundaries as follow, that is to say :

"The district is to consist of the hamlets of Ash, Witcombe, and Milton, and that part of Stapleton highway which commences opposite to and forms an angle with the lane or road leading to Milton, and is bounded on the north by the parish of Long Sutton; on the east by the parish of Tintinhull; on the south and west by the remaining part of the parish of Martock, from which it is separated by proceeding (from the road leading to Ilchester) in a westerly direction along the southern fence of enclosures marked, on the tithe commutation map, Nos. 68, 2153, 63, and 61, as far as No. 57; it then turns southerly down the eastern fence of No. 57; and then north westerly along the southern fences of Nos. 57, 56, and 52, to the western fence of enclosure No. 52, up which fence it proceeds northerly to the southern fence of No. 36, along which fence it proceeds westerly as far as No. 49; it then proceeds northward up the eastern fences of Nos. 49 and 37, then turns westerly along the northern fence of No. 37, then southerly
