

“ And whereas the Reverend John Chapman, as such rector and patron as aforesaid, has applied to us to make arrangements for the union of the said sinecure rectory with the said vicarage; and it appears to us to be expedient, that such union should be forthwith effected, and that such other arrangements relating thereto should be made as are hereinafter mentioned :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Reverend John Chapman, testified by his having hereunto set his hand and seal, and of the said Provost and scholars of the said college, testified by their corporate seal being hereunto affixed, that the said sinecure rectory and vicarage of Milton shall be forthwith permanently united and consolidated, and that the same shall become and be one benefice with cure of souls, by the name of the rectory of Milton; and that the said John Chapman shall thereupon become and be rector of such rectory; and he and his successors, rectors thereof, shall be entitled to all the emoluments, both of the said sinecure rectory and of the said vicarage; and that the rectory of Milton shall after such union and consolidation as aforesaid be in the patronage of the said Provost and scholars of the said College for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23d day of December 1845.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, viz.

“ Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to amend the Acts, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches,” beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Enfield, in the county of Middlesex, and within the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church or chapel, called Jesus Chapel, in the said parish, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches
