NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Highbury Independent Chapel, situated in Graham-street, in the parish of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and in the district of Birmingham, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 22d day of December 1845, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 24th day of December 1845, Henry Knight, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Richard Bell of No. 16, Basing-lane, in the city of London, lucifer match manufacturer, intends to apply, by petition to Her Majesty in Council, for a prolongation of the term of sole using and vending "an improved apparatus for producing instantaneous light, and the means and mechanism to be employed in the manufacture of the same," granted to William Newton, of the Office of Patents, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, civil engineer, by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date, at Westminster, the 10th day of August, in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and which letters patent have been duly assigned to and are now legally and solely vested in the said Richard Bell; and further, that the said Richard Bell intends, on the 24th day of January next, to apply to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of his said petition; and that any person, intending to oppose the said petition, must enter a caveat at the Privy Council Office before that day.—Dated this 8th day of December 1845.

London and Birmingham Railway (Saint Albans and Dunstable Branch).

WHEREAS notices were published, in the month of November last, in the London Gazette, and in the Bedford Mercury and Herts County Press papers, of the intention to apply to Parliament in the next session for an Act to authorize the construction of a railway, commencing by a junction with the London and Birmingham Railway, in the parish of Watford, and terminating in the parish of Houghton Regis and Dunstable, or one of them, in the county of Bedford, by a junction with the Dunstable and London and Birmingham Branch Railway, authorized to be made by the Act relating thereto, passed in the last session of Parliament, or commencing at some intermediate point or points between the points of commencement and determination hereinbefore specified, plans, sections, and a book of reference relating to which intended railway were deposited, on the thirtieth day of November last, at the offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the liberty of Saint Albans and the counties of Hertford and Bedford respectively.

And whereas it is desired, by persons interested in property on the line of the said intended railway, as shewn in the said plans, that such line should be altered or diverted in the parish of Caddington, in the county of Herts.

Now notice is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament, in and by the Act for making the said intended railway, for powers to alter and divert the said line, as shewn in the said plans, within the said parish of Caddington, that is to say, from a point near the fourth mile to another point about two furlongs beyond the fifth mile, as marked on such plans, and for powers to levy tolls on such altered line; and to purchase, by compulsion or agreement, all such lands and hereditaments as may be required for the purposes thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the thirty-first day of December instant, a plan and section of the said intended altered line, with a book of reference to such plan, will be, or will have been, deposited, for public inspection, at the offices of the respective Clerks of the Peace for the liberty of Saint Albans, and for the counties of Hertford and Bedford, and also with the parish clerk of the said parish of Caddington.—Dated this 22d day of December 1845.
