

“ And whereas the said district of Saint James, Burnley, was duly constituted out of the parochial chapelry of Burnley, in the parish of Whalley, in the said county of Lancaster, and diocese of Chester, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, by a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and since duly gazetted :

“ And whereas it has since been represented to us, and appears to us to be expedient, that the bounds of such district should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bird Bishop of Chester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the bounds of the said district of Saint James, Burnley, shall be altered as follows ; that is to say, instead of that part of the imaginary line described in the schedule to the scheme hereinbefore mentioned as ‘ extending towards the south east from the river Calder, along the north eastern boundary of the work-house premises in Burnley (marked a on the map or plan therewith), and continuing in a straight direction to a point opposite to the middle of Sydney-street, at the northern end thereof (marked b as aforesaid), and thence southward, along the middle of such street, to a point opposite to the middle of Bank-house street (marked c as aforesaid); and thence eastward, along the middle of such last-mentioned street, to a point opposite to the middle of Curzon-street (marked d as aforesaid),’ and forming the northern boundary of the said district of Saint James, Burnley; such district shall be bounded on the northern side thereof by the East Lancashire Railway; and the imaginary line extending along the middle of Curzon-street (or, as it is now called, Parsonage-street), and now forming part of the eastern boundary of the said district, shall be extended northward along the middle of such last-mentioned street as far as the railway aforesaid; and that all that part of the said parochial chapelry of Burnley, now situate within the altered and extended boundaries so herein recommended as aforesaid, all which is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto annexed; shall henceforth be united to and form part of the said district of Saint James, Burnley; and that all that part of the said district which by reason of the alteration of the boundaries so herein recommended and proposed as aforesaid shall become and be detached and excluded therefrom, shall to all intents and purposes again belong to and form part of the said parochial chapelry of Burnley.

“ And we further recommend and propose; that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the parish, and of the church or chapel of the chapelry out of which the district, the bounds of which are therein recommended to be altered, has been taken, and also to the minister and patrons of such district, pursuant to the provisions of the said Acts; and such incumbents, minister, and patrons, have respectively consented to the said scheme :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.
