TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1846.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 12, 1846.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Levees, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Wednesday, 11th February next.
 Wednesday, 18th February next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock, on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being

Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen, who are to be presented at the Levees, will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons, having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 12, 1846.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 26th of February next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM.

The Ladies, who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Tuesday the 24th of February next, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23d day of December 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for ratifying and carrying into effect a certain agreement made between us and the Prebendary of Kinvaston, in the collegiate church of Wolverhampton.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Acts enacted, that, for the purpose of fully carrying into effect the provisions thereof, any arrangement may from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in the possession or enjoyment of such prebendary, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments :

"And whereas, under other provisions and for the purposes of the said recited Acts, the whole property of the said prebend of Kinvaston will, upon the next vacancy thereof, become absolutely vested in us; but the Reverend Augustus Edward Hobart was, at the passing of the first-recited Act, and now is the prebendary thereof :

"And whereas, under the hereinbefore recited enactments, and by virtue of the general authority of the said recited Acts, we have entered into an agreement with the said prebendary, a copy whereof is annexed by way of schedule to this scheme; and the said agreement has been duly executed by the said Augustus Edward Hobart under his hand :

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the said agreement, and all acts; matters, and things done, and to be done, for carrying the same into effect, shall be valid and effectual in law, and binding upon the parties thereto, and upon all other persons whomsoever to all intents and purposes.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters herein contained, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ Articles of agreement made this fourteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, between the Reverend Augustus Edward Hobart, of Walton, near Loughborough, in the county of Leicester, Clerk, Prebendary of the prebend of Kinvaston otherwise Kinvarston, founded in the Collegiate Church or King's Free Royal Chapel of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part:

“ Whereas the said Augustus Edward Hobart, in right of his said prebend, is seised of or entitled to divers estates and hereditaments, which, or the greater part of which, have for many years been let on lease for lives, at ancient rents, which leases have been usually renewed at certain periods, on payment to the said prebendary of fines or premiums as the consideration for granting such renewal, and according to such practice the lease next hereinafter recited would now have become renewable; and whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture of lease, bearing date the twenty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, and made between the said Augustus Edward Hobart of the first part; Alexander Hordern, Esquire, of the second part; William Garfield, writing clerk, and Robert Fowke, articulated clerk, of the third part; and Henry Hordern and Henry Hill, bankers, of the fourth part; for the considerations therein mentioned, the said Augustus Edward Hobart did demise unto the said Alexander Hordern, his heirs and assigns, all that the manor or prebend of Kinvaston otherwise Kinvarston, within the collegiate church or King's Free Royal Chapel of Wolverhampton aforesaid, with all and singular the rights, members, and appurtenances thereunto belonging; and all tithes and all messuages, houses, edifices, buildings, shops, cellars, workhouses, orchards, gardens, lands, tenements, meadows, leasows, closes, pastures, field ground rent, services, woods, ways, waters, easements, pensions, portions, oblations, obventions, profits, emoluments, hereditaments, and advantages whatsoever, save such messuages, gardens, stables, yards, shops, warehouse, vault, timber-yard, engine-house, coal-house, and hereditaments, situate in Wolverhampton aforesaid, parcel of the corps belonging to such prebend as were given and conveyed away in exchange for other lands situate in Wolverhampton aforesaid, in lieu thereof, and which other lands are comprised and comprehended in and intended to be demised by the now reciting presents to the said manor or prebend belonging or in anywise appertaining or reputed, accepted, taken, or known as part, parcel, or member of the said manor or prebend, in whose tenure, occupation, or possession soever the same, or any part thereof, were situate and should happen to arise, spring, grow, or be due; all which, or the greatest part of which tenements and premises, by the now reciting presents granted and demised, or mentioned or intended so to be, were situate, lying, and being in the township of Wolverhampton and Kinvaston otherwise Kinvarston, one or both of them, in the said county of Stafford; together with the view of frankpledge of all courts, courts leet, courts baron, and all other courts, perquisites and profits of courts, privileges, franchises, customs, chief rents, fines, heriots, reliefs, jurisdictions, and services whatsoever due, incident, or belonging to the said manor, prebends, leets, or courts, or used or accustomed to and with the said prebend; or thereunto belonging or appertaining, with their and every of their rights, members, and appurtenances; and also all those seven pieces or parcels of land, formerly four or five pieces, situate and being in the township of Wolverhampton, and in the parish of Wolverhampton aforesaid, and lying next or near to the turnpike road leading from Wolverhampton aforesaid to Cannock, in the said county of Stafford, containing, by admeasurement, seventeen acres, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, theretofore in the occupation of Nathaniel Stirk, Francis Evans, George Windsor, David Cole, and Sarah Evans, and late of the widow Bennett, John Chedworth, and the widow Bosworth, their undertenants or assigns, and which said seven closes of land front the said turnpike road to the north, and were bounded on the east by land heretofore of Mr. Rutter, but afterwards of Daniel Fieldhouse, in the occupation of _____, west by lands late of James Hordern, deceased, and late in the possession of the widow Bosworth, and north by lands of the late Doctor Petit, and of John Gough, and the same were part and parcel of the corps belonging to the said prebend of Kinvaston otherwise Kinvarston, together with all and singular the rights, members, and appurtenances, to the same belonging and appertaining, except always and reserved out of the now reciting presents unto the said Augustus Edward Hobart and his successors, prebendaries of the said prebend of Kinvaston otherwise Kinvarston, the tithes of corn, grain, and hay, called the running tithes, which were usually divided yearly between the prebendary of the prebend aforesaid and the other prebendaries of the said church or King's Free Royal Chapel of Wolverhampton aforesaid, and also except the tithes of the ley farm and the use of the best chamber in the capital messuage of the said prebendal house, theretofore in the occupation or possession of Elizabeth Hayes, afterwards of _____ Lloyd, since of Edward Banks, but then of for him and them to lodge in during his or their residence, at the said collegiate church or King's Free Royal Chapel; and also except and reserved out of the now reciting presents unto the said Augustus Edward Hobart and his successors, all and all manner of timber trees and trees likely to become timber, which then were in or upon the said demised premises, or upon any part or parcel thereof, to hold (except as thereinbefore excepted) to the said Alexander Hordern, his heirs and assigns, from the making of the now reciting presents for and during the natural lives of Richard Tooth, then aged fifty years, or thereabouts, eldest son of Dorothy Tooth, late of Wolverhampton aforesaid, widow, deceased; Henry Hordern, of Wolverhampton aforesaid, banker, then aged thirty-one years, or thereabouts; and Thomas Hordern Whitaker, then aged thirteen years, or thereabouts, only child of the Reverend Thomas Thoresby Whitaker, late of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, Clerk, deceased, and for and during the natural lives and life of the longest liver or survivors or survivor of them, subject to any lease then existing of all or any part or parts of the said premises, at or under the yearly rent of fifteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, payable at the place, at the times, and in the manner therein more particularly mentioned; and whereas the said Henry Hordern, one of the cestui que vie, named in the said hereinbefore in part recited indenture of lease, died on or about the _____ day of _____ one thousand eight hundred and forty- _____; and whereas the said Augustus Edward Hobart is also entitled, in right of his said prebend, as well to the said hereditaments and premises excepted from and reserved out of the said hereinbefore recited lease, as also to certain other estates, rights, and interests; and whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the authority of certain Acts of Parliament, enabling them in that behalf, have entered into an arrangement with the said Augustus Edward Hobart, for the purchase or commutation of all his right and interest in the said estates, as well those included in the said hereinbefore recited indenture, as otherwise, and all other his rights and interests in respect of his said prebend (except as hereinafter mentioned) at and for the gross sum of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven pounds, and into and for the annual sum of one hundred and thirty pounds, to be paid to the said Augustus Edward Hobart, so long as he shall continue prebendary of the said prebend, at the times and in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, in consideration of the sum of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven pounds of lawful money of Great Britain in hand, paid by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, at or before the execution of this agreement, the receipt whereof the said Augustus Edward Hobart does hereby acknowledge, and of and from the same and every part thereof, does acquit and discharge the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, their successors and assigns, and also in consideration of the annuity or yearly payment of one hundred and thirty pounds to be paid to him by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, at the times, and in manner hereinafter mentioned; he, the said Augustus Edward Hobart, hereby undertakes and agrees, when requested so to do, by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to convey, assign, surrender, and yield up unto the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or to such persons or person, and by such deeds and assurances, and in such manner as the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall direct, all the estate, right, title, and interest whatsoever of him the said Augustus Edward Hobart, as from the first day of January instant, of and in all and singular the manors, messuages, farms, lands, rents, tithes, rents charge, and other commutations in lieu of tithes, tenements, and hereditaments comprised in the said hereinbefore in part recited indenture of lease, and all other the manors, messuages, farms, lands, rents, tithes, rents charge, and other commutations in lieu of tithes, tenements, hereditaments, fines, fees, perquisites, pensions, portions, reliefs, heriots, and all and every other sums and sum of money belonging, coming, arising, accruing, or payable, or to belong, come, arise, accrue, or be payable to him the said Augustus Edward Hobart, in right of his said prebend, including the hereditaments, rights, and premises, excepted out of and reserved from the said hereinbefore recited indenture of lease (except as hereinafter mentioned), and freed and discharged of and from all rights, titles, interests, incumbrances, claims, or demands whatsoever, at any time heretofore, or to be hereafter made, created, suffered, or occasioned by the said Augustus Edward Hobart, other than and except the said hereinbefore in part recited indenture of lease; and also that he the said Augustus Edward Hobart will, on the request of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners deliver over to them or to any other person or persons they may appoint all counterparts of leases, terriers, rentals, maps, plans, and all other documents whatsoever relating to or in any way affecting the said estates and hereditaments, or any of them which are now in his custody, possession, or power, or which he can or may procure without suit at law or in equity, and shall and will afford to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners all the information and assistance in his power, when required so to do, in order to their obtaining full knowledge respecting the said prebendal estates, and the leases thereof, and especially the full particulars of the messuages, lands, and hereditaments comprised in the hereinbefore recited lease, and all other hereditaments, rights, and interests belonging to such prebend; and the said Augustus Edward Hobart hereby covenants and declares, that he hath not, since the twenty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, granted, and will not at any time hereafter grant, any renewed or other leases of any part of the said estates and hereditaments, and will not execute any grant or regrant of or admission to any copyhold or customary hereditaments, and will not receive any of the said rents, tithes, rents charge, commutations, fines, fees, perquisites, pensions, portions, reliefs, heriots, or other sum or sums of money which, since the said first day of January instant, have accrued, arisen, or become due to him in right of his said prebend, nor exercise any other right of ownership, or other power or privilege whatsoever, in relation to the said premises; and it is hereby declared and agreed, that neither this agreement, nor any deed or instrument to be executed in pursuance thereof, shall operate to confirm or give effect to any lease heretofore granted, or expressed to be granted, of any part of the said prebendal estates which is or may be void or voidable, at law or in equity, or in any way affect the right of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and either in their own names, or in that of the said Augustus Edward Hobart, to recover from any person or persons whomsoever compensation for any now present or future waste or dilapidations in the said estates and hereditaments, or any part thereof, but that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be at liberty to take any proceedings they may think fit for the purpose of setting aside any such lease, or on account of any such waste or dilapidations as aforesaid, either during the life or continuance of the incumbency of the said Augustus Edward Hobart, subject to the proviso next hereinafter contained, or after his death or determination of his incumbency, in like manner as if this agreement, or any such deed or instrument, had not been made or executed; provided always, that in case any proceedings shall be taken by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for setting aside any such lease, on account of any such waste or dilapidations as aforesaid during the lifetime or incumbency of the said Augustus Edward Hobart, they the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall indemnify and save harmless the said Augustus Edward Hobart, his heirs, executors, and administrators against all losses, costs, charges, and expences which he may pay or incur, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof, either under any express or implied covenant, on his part, for the quiet enjoyment of the premises comprised in such lease, or otherwise; and the said Augustus Edward Hobart doth hereby further undertake and agree, that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and their successors, shall have full power and authority, by themselves or by any other person or persons, to be from time to time appointed by them, and at the costs and charges of the funds vested in them in virtue of their said office, to use the name and act as the attorney of the said Augustus Edward Hobart, in asking, demanding, suing for, recovering, or receiving and giving receipts for the said rents, tithes, rents charge, commutations for tithes, fines, fees, perquisites, pensions, portions, reliefs, heriots, and other sum and sums of money, and settling and adjusting all accounts, matters, and things relating thereto, and also for setting aside any lease or leases heretofore granted, or expressed to be granted, of any part or parts of the said estates and hereditaments, and recovering possession of the same estates and hereditaments, or in any proceedings, either in law or in equity, relating to any waste or dilapidations as aforesaid; and, in consideration of the agreements hereinbefore contained on the part of the said Augustus Edward Hobart, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners hereby undertake and agree, with and out of the funds placed at their disposal by the said Acts, some or one of them, to pay to the said Augustus Edward Hobart, so long as he shall continue prebendary of the said prebend, the said annuity or yearly sum of one hundred and thirty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of July and the first day of January in every year, the said annual sum to commence from the said first day of January instant, and the first half-yearly payment thereof to be made on the first day of July now next ensuing, and a proportionate part of the said annual sum up to the time of the said Augustus Edward Hobart's ceasing to be the incumbent of the said prebend, in respect of the portion which shall have elapsed of the then current half year to be paid to the said Augustus Edward Hobart, his executors or administrators, within twenty-one days after his ceasing to be incumbent of the said prebend as aforesaid, and the said annual sum to be paid free of all deductions, except on account of the income tax; and, for securing the said annuity, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners agree to give, and the said Augustus Edward Hobart agrees to accept, a written undertaking, under the seal of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for payment thereof, out of the funds and revenues placed at their disposal by the said Acts of Parliament, some or one of them, and containing a declaration that the rents and profits of the said prebendal estates shall not stand specifically charged by way of equitable security with or towards the payment thereof; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall alter or affect the right or interest of the said Augustus Edward Hobart in or to any advowson or rights of patronage or presentation belonging to him in right of his said prebend; and, lastly, it is hereby agreed by the the said Augustus Edward Hobart and by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that the costs of this agreement, and of making the valuation upon which the calculation for the said annuity is based and calculated, shall be borne by the said Augustus Edward Hobart and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in equal proportions; and that the costs of all deeds and assurances for conveying and assigning or assuring the said estates and premises to, or in trust for, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be paid by them; and the costs of the said undertaking, to be given by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for payment of the said annuity, shall be paid by the said Augustus Edward Hobart: in witness whereof the said Augustus Edward Hobart hath hereunto set his hand and seal, and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners have hereunto affixed their seal, the day and year first above written.

“Augustus Edwd. Hobart. (L.S.)

“Signed, sealed, and delivered by the above-named Augustus Edward Hobart, in the presence of William Daykin, baker, Walton-le-Wolds, Leicestershire.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23d day of December 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale of certain property lately belonging to the prebend of Sacrista, in the collegiate church of Southwell.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, and other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is so vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso, that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed except by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same:

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments, described in the schedule hereunder written, lately formed a portion of the property and endowment of the said prebend of Sacrista, but are now vested in us by reason of the vacancy of the said prebend:

"And whereas we have contracted and agreed for the sale of the said lands and hereditaments, subject to the determination of a certain lease for lives, to the purchaser and for the price hereinafter mentioned:

"We humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said recited Act, to John Barrow, of Southwell, in the county of Nottingham, Esquire, his heirs or assigns, or as he or they shall direct and appoint, at and for the price or sum of one hundred and twenty-five pounds sixteen shillings and six pence, all our estate and interest in the lands and hereditaments so described in the said schedule hereunder written.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" THE SCHEDULE:

" In Halloughton Dale Field.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of January 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the fourth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act concerning banns and marriages in certain district churches or chapels," made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twentieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches," beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," particular districts were, by virtue of and in conformity with two Orders of your Majesty in Council, respectively dated the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and the fifteenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, duly assigned to the consecrated churches or chapels, called Trinity Chapel and Saint Mary's Chapel, both situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and within the diocese of Winchester:

"That the said Orders in Council did not direct that marriages should be performed in the said chapels:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the said districts so assigned to the said two chapels, it appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should hereafter be published, and that marriages should hereafter be performed in the said chapels, called Trinity Chapel and Saint Mary's Chapel; and that a supplemental Order for that purpose should be made, pursuant to the provisions of the fourth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act concerning banns and marriages in certain district churches or chapels;" and that all the fees arising from the publication of banns of marriage and the performance of marriages in the said chapels should be paid and belong to the present Rector of the said parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, during his incumbency thereof, but upon and after his avoidance of the rectory of such parish the said fees should belong and be paid to the incumbents for the time being of the said chapels, called Trinity Chapel and Saint Mary's Chapel:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard Lord Bishop of Winchester has been obtained thereto, as required by the last-mentioned Act; in testimony whereof, the said Charles Richard Lord Bishop of Winchester has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the performance of marriages, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

COURT OF EXCHEQUER.

Hilary Term, 9th Victoria.

January 26, 1846.

This Court will, on Friday the 6th day of February next, hold Sittings, and will proceed in disposing of the business then pending in the Special Paper and the New Trial Paper, on the said 6th day of February next, and also on Saturday the 7th day of February next, and on Monday the 9th day of February next, and the five following days, and on Monday the 16th day of February next, and the five following days.

By the Court.

Read in open Court,
Edwd. Bennett.

Whitehall, December 24, 1845.

The Right Honourable Sir Nicolas Conyngham Findal, Knt. Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Peas, has appointed John Price, of Buntingford, in the county of Hertford, Gent. to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgements of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the county of Hertford.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Old Chapel, situated at Morley, in the parish of Batley, in the county of York, in the district of the Dewsbury union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 14th day of January 1846, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 22d day of January 1846, William Carr, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Wesley Chapel, situated at Arundel-street, in the parish of Portsea, in the county of Southampton, in the district of the Portsea Island union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 19th day of January 1846, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 21st day of January 1846, James Moorman, Superintendent Registrar.

In the Matter of Letters Patent for England granted to John Sylvester, of Great Russell-street, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer, for "certain Improvements in Apparatus for raising the Temperature of Air to warm and ventilate Buildings," bearing date at Westminster the 5th day of June 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the said John Sylvester intends to petition Her Majesty in Council, praying Her Majesty to grant him a prolongation of the term of sole using and vending his invention, for which the said letters patent were so granted as aforesaid. And notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made, on the 25th day of February 1846, to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, to fix an early day for hearing the matters contained in the said petition; and all persons, desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of such petition, are, on or before the 25th day of February 1846, to enter a caveat at the Privy Council Office.

Watkins and Hooper, No. 11, Sackville-street.

CONTRACTS FOR RAISINS, SUGAR, TOBACCO, BISCUIT BAGS, AND CANVAS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, January 24, 1846.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Friday the 6th of February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the under-mentioned articles viz.

Raisins, new Black Smyrna, 60 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Sugar, the produce of the British possessions, 100 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Tobacco, Virginia, 10 tons; half to be delivered in a fortnight, and the remainder in a fortnight afterwards.

Tobacco, Kentucky, 5 tons; half to be delivered in a fortnight, and the remainder in a fortnight afterwards.

Biscuit Bags, large, 60,000 number; one third to be delivered by the 30th of April, another by the 30th of June, and the remainder by the 31st of August next.

Canvas for Pudding Bags, 3000 ells; to be delivered within two months.

The Raisins, Sugar, and Tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties.

Samples of the raisins (not less than three pounds) must be produced by the parties tendering, and samples of the other articles, together with the conditions of the contracts, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and those for sugar and biscuit bags must be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, and those for raisins and canvas by one responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contracts.

London, January 27, 1846.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Annual General Court of Proprietors of the Rock Reversionary and Loan Society will be held at the London Tavern, Bishopsgate-street, on Thursday the 12th day of February next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely.

Wilde, Rees, Humphry, and Wilde, Solicitors for the said Society, College-hill.

CONTRACT for PAINT INGREDIENTS, &c.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, January 6, 1846.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Friday the 30th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock-yards with Colours, Turpentine, and Ingredients for Making Paint.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Paint Ingredients, &c." and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract.

SALE of OLD STORES at PORTSMOUTH.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place, January 21, 1846.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Wednesday the 18th of February next, at twelve o'clock at noon, the Admiral Superintendent will put up to sale, in Her Majesty's Dock-yard at Portsmouth, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of old Rope, Canvas, Yarns, Ocham, Hemp Rubbish and Cuttings, Files, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots must apply to the Superintendent for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard.

THE Annual General Court of Governors of the Marine Society for the election of Officers for the year ensuing will be held at their Office, 54½, Bishopsgate-street, on Thursday the 5th of February 1846, at one o'clock precisely.

Thos. King, Secretary.

[Extract from the Edinburgh Gazette of January 23, 1846.]

Edinburgh and Leith Water Company.

Edinburgh, January 20, 1846.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Directors have ordered a call of £5 per cent. upon the capital subscribed for by each Shareholder, to be paid between Thursday the 22d current and

Wednesday the 28th current, at one of the following Banks, namely:

The British Linen Company.
The Commercial Bank.
The Edinburgh and Glasgow Bank.

Powers are to be taken in the Bill to allow 4 per cent. interest upon calls. Interest, at 5 per cent. will be charged on calls not paid on or before the last-mentioned date.

A printed circular will be forwarded to each Shareholder in the contract, stating the number of shares, and the amount of the call payable thereon; and the Directors request that the circular may be presented at the Bank when the call is paid.

The payment of the call will be endorsed upon the scrip certificates, upon their being presented, with the Banker's receipt for the call, at the Company's Temporary Office, No. 10, St. Andrew-square, upon 29th, 30th, or 31st current.

By order of the Directors,
Charles Morton, Secretary.

Westminster, January 27, 1846.
