

Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of January 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches," beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Swindon, in the county of Wilts, and within the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," be assigned to the church called Saint Mark's Church, recently erected and consecrated at Swindon New Town, in the said parish of Swindon; and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Swindon New Town," and be bounded as follows, that is to say:

"On or towards the north and north west by the parish of Rolbourn Cheney; on or towards the south by the turnpike road leading from Wootton Bassett to Swindon, and by a road way leading from the said turnpike road to the turnpike road from Cricklade to Swindon; on or towards the east by the said turnpike road from Cricklade to Swindon; and on or towards the west by the parish of Lydiard Tregoz, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink:

"That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said church of Saint Mark; and that all the fees arising therefrom should be paid and belong to the Minister of such church for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of said His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and
