

and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buchingham-Palace, the 21st day of January 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Wrotham, in the county of Kent, and within the diocese of Canterbury, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," be assigned to the church recently erected and consecrated by the name of Saint Mary's Church, at Platt, in the said parish of Wrotham; and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Platt," and be bounded as follows, that is to say:

"The district is wholly contained within the ancient limits of the borough of Neppiker, and forms the southern portion thereof, and is bounded on the east by the parishes of Addington, Leybourn, Mereworth, and West Peckham; on the south west by the recently constituted parish of Plaxtol, which parish consists of the ancient boroughs of Plaxtol or Hale, Winfield, and Roughway, inclusive of a detached portion of the said borough of Winfield locally situate within the limits of the district of Saint Mary; on part of the north west by the the town borough (comprised in the parish of Wrotham) as far as the north western corner of the enclosure marked, on the tithe commutation map, No. 960, and on the remaining part of the north west by the remainder of the said borough of Neppiker; the description of the line of boundary dividing the said borough of Neppiker being as follows, that is to say, the said line of boundary commencing from the north west corner of the said enclosure, No. 960, proceeds in an easterly direction along the northern fences of the enclosures marked, on the said tithe commutation map, Nos. 960, 961, 984, 990 to 992; it then proceeds north easterly along the north western fences of enclosures marked, on the said map, Nos. 992 and 1524, continuing along the northern fences of enclosures Nos. 1520 and 1519; it then crosses the road from Wrotham to Maidstone, and continues along a water course in a north easterly direction, passing on the south side of Ford-place and Mill, till it enters the parish of Addington, as the said district is shewn on the plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink; the said plan being copied or adopted from the tithe apportionment map of the parish of Wrotham, and the numbers therein corresponding with the numbers in the said tithe map:

"That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be performed in the said church; and that all the fees arising therefrom should be paid and belong to the Minister of such church for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Lord Archbishop of Canterbury has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned Act and section; in testimony whereof, the said William Lord Archbishop of Canterbury has signed and sealed this representation:
